

IN VAN BUREN DISTRICT

'Lack' of Sumpter Teacher Hiring Causing Concern

BELLEVILLE — The problem of employing teachers of the re-organized Sumpter School District to teach students in the Van Buren Public Schools and the "Reported lack of action" on part of the Van Buren School Board to hire them has caused concern among some areas of the community.

The Van Buren Public School District is one of four school districts adjacent to the former Sumpter School District, that had been ordered by the State Board of Education to take over Sumpter students in the reorganization of the district. A Wayne County Circuit Court suit filed by Van Buren School Board is asking the court to rule on the financial responsibilities and rights relative to the Sumpter reorganization. Some $476,000 to help finance the reorganization in Van Buren is involved.

Hearing on the matter was held Aug. 22 and is to continue on Sept. 3. If the monies are not forthcoming as promised by the State Board of Education then it appears that many Sumpter students will not be attending Van Buren Schools when schools opened Sept. 5.

The Van Buren Education Association is a statement issued by Roland A. Wolfe, president, said:

"We as teachers are vitally concerned with the problem of the Sumpter School District and hope that solutions can be found rapidly to provide educational opportunities for these children."

"The Board of Directors of the Van Buren Education Association will be considering the problem along with many others in a meeting that will be held on Tuesday, Aug. 27, at the Belleville High School's Library." A VBEA member reported that the 1968 - 69 School budget covered employment of some of the Sumpter teachers.

Members of the Belleville Area Human Relations Council, Rev. Allen B. Rice, II, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Belleville, and Richard Welsh, assistant pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Belleville met with School Superintendent Dale E. Kaulitz last Thursday, (Aug. 22) at the high school and aired their concern.

They were told that the school officials have been discussing the matter of hiring the Sumpter School which employed 36 teachers last year. The Court litigation involving "required and promised finances" to Van Buren Schools is holding up any action on the physical takeover by Van Buren of some 550 Sumpter students and certain facilities.

VB School Board Resists Sumpter District Split-up

Court Action Filed To Determine Rights Financial Relief Sought To Assist in Reorganization

By Henry Cantin
ANP Staff Writer

BELLEVILLE — The Van Buren Public School District's Board of Education has instituted proceedings in Wayne County Circuit Court resisting the State Board of Education's ordered split-up of the former Sumpter School District.

The court action initiated several weeks ago by School Board Attorney John E. MacDonald, delays the take-over of certain facilities and the acceptance of some 540 Sumpter School District students scheduled for the opening of schools, Sept. 5.

The complaint filed by the Van Buren School Board seeks a declaratory relief and asks the court to make a declaration of rights and responsibilities on the Sumpter reorganization.

The impoverished Sumpter School District was reorganized by orders the State Board of Education January, 1968 after public hearings and subsequent investigations.

ITS AREAS, students and facilities were split up among four adjacent school districts: Van Buren Public School District, Lincoln Consolidated School District, Airport Community School District and the Huron Township School District. The split-up was effective June 7 and to be completed in time for the 1968-69 school year.

An official copy of the order of reorganization dated Jan. 9, 1968, listing boundaries and division of facilities and proportions of remaining operating debt of Sumpter District to be assumed by the four school district, was received by the Van Buren

School Board OK's Junior High Bids

BELLEVILLE — The Van Buren Board of Education Monday night approved the following bids received for the construction of Van Buren Public Schools System's new Junior High School.

The bids studied by the School Board were first reviewed by Jahr-Anderson Associates, Inc., Architects and Engineers of Dearborn and approved architects for the new Junior High School, Dale E. Kaulitz, superintendent, reported. Bids as finally approved totaled $2,488,306.

A bid for the general construction work submitted by F. W. Fordon Company was accepted. It was for $1,644,000, the lowest bid of eight received. The high bid of $1,897,508 was submitted by Salvaggio & Son Construction. The low bid of $554,500 for mechanical work was submitted by Norman L. Boelter Company. Eleven bids were received ranging from $687,200 down. Nine bids were submitted for the electrical work. A bid of $289,860 submitted by Darwish Brothers Electric Company was approved. Bids received for Food Service Equipment were taken under study by the School Board.

The Junior High School is to be built on a site, located at Beck and McBride, west of Quirk Road Subdivision.

Funds for the building of the new school structure has already been provided for in a $4.5 million bond issue approved by the voters in April, 1955.

Kaulitz stated that construction of the new school is expected to get underway in a few weeks.

NEW ST. ANTHONY'S CHURCH — An artist's sketch of the new St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Belleville, is shown above. Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new church were held last July 14. When completed the new structure will have a seating capacity of 850. Architect is Walter J. Rozycki and Design Consultant is John Stevens, Rev. Albert J. Folta, pastor said.

Romulus Schools' Loan Plea Approved by State

ROMULUS — Michigan's Municipal Finance Commission has approved Tax Anticipation Notes in the amount of $750,000 for the Romulus Community Schools, chairman Frank J. Kelley, announced Monday.

"The proceeds will be used to defray operating expenses through January, 1969. The notes are dated Sept. 1, 1968 and are to be due May 1, 1969, and will carry a maximum interest rate of four percent a year," Kelley stated.

An official notice of sale of the Tax Anticipation Notes was issued by the Romulus Board of Education immediately after receipt of the finance commission's approval.

SEALED BIDS for the purchase of the notes will be received at the Board of Education Offices, located at 11401 Olive Street, until 7:30 p.m. Sept. 9. Davis B. Draper, secretary of the School Board, announced.

The loan is on anticipation of the school operating tax due and payable Dec. 1, 1968," he stated.

Last week, the School Board approved and ordered a series of cutbacks that Robert L. McConeghy, school superintendent, and his administrative aides had recommended.

The cutbacks in athletic activities and other class programs were prompted by rejection by the school district's voters of a millage increase request in the June 10 (1968) election.

The school system has already borrowed $300,000 from state aid loan fund to meet operating expenses.

During the 1967-68 school year, the district borrowed $600,000 and is now repaying this loan, McConeghy said.

Residential Drive Chairmen For Torch Drive Announced

Four homemakers from Belleville and Romulus will serve with a Plymouth housewife as division chairmen for the 1968 Torch Drive's residential campaign in Region 35.

The region includes Romulus, Huron, Sumpter, Van Buren and Canton Townships.

The five division chairmen were named by Mrs. James B. Fruit, of 41 N. Edgemont, Belleville, residential chairman for the campaign region.

Mrs. Fruit's appointments include:

Mrs. Robert L. Pullen, 404 High Street, and Mrs. James W. McCullough, 19650 Kerr Road, both of Belleville.

Mrs. Gary L. Gruber, 38212 Castle Drive, and Mrs. Ronald Bock, 18800 Inkster Road, both of Romulus.

Also, Mrs. Frederick L. Green, 6121 Lotz Rd., Plymouth, who will serve a division chairman for Canton Township.

"I AM DELIGHTED and grateful these outstanding volunteers have accepted leadership roles in this year's campaign," Mrs. Fruit said.

She said the division chairmen will recruit organize and train volunteers for the house-to-house canvass in their assigned areas.

This year's Torch Drive, the 20th annual United Foundation campaign, will be held Oct. 15 through Nov. 7. Benefiting will be nearly 200 health and community services in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties.

Mrs. Pullen, who will serve as division chairman for the Belleville solicitation, is active in the Women's Society of Christian Service of the United Methodist Church. She attended Hillsdale College.

Mrs. Pullen and her husband, a pilot with Universal Airlines, have two daughters, Sarah, 9, and Lisa, 4.

Mrs. McCullough, division chairman for Sumpter Township, attended St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing and was a doorbell ringer for the 1967 UF campaign.

SHE IS active in St. Anthony's Altar Society and Mothers' Club, and is a member of the Democratic Club of Sumpter.

She and her husband, a Ford Motor Company employee, have five children: Susan Marie, 16; (See CHAIRMEN page 2)

Safe Driving Appeal Issued

Area enforcement agencies and traffic officials issued a united appeal Monday to motorists to drive with due care and caution over the Labor Day weekend, the last of the major summer holiday periods.

Michigan State Police will operate special highway patrols and local police departments have been alerted to watch for the careless and reckless driver. Courts have warned that violators of traffic laws will receive harsh treatment.

With high volume traffic expected over the Labor Day weekend, the Michigan State Police will operate special highway patrols from noon, Friday, Aug. 30, to midnight, Monday, Sept. 2. Col. Frederick E. Davids, department director, reported.

As was the case for the July 4 weekend, Davids said another state area has been selected for intensified enforcement in the coming holiday period. Though the area is not identified, he pointed out that lawful motorists have nothing to fear from this activity.

IN NOTING that Michigan's traffic death count so far this year is running more than 10 per cent higher than in the comparable period in 1967, Davids emphasized that motorists must exercise judgment in all driving.

VB School Board Issues Statement On District Split

Editor's Note: The following statement on the court litigation involving the Sumpter School District Reorganization was prepared and signed by the full membership of the Van Buren Township Board of Education. Copies of the statement as printed below have been distributed by mail to all parents of students attending the Van Buren School System.

August 27, 1968

SUBJECT: Sumpter School District Reorganization
FROM: Van Buren School District Board of Education

The Van Buren Public School District several weeks ago filed a suit for declaratory relief asking the Court to make a declaration of rights and responsibilities relative to the Sumpter reorganization. The School District took this action because it felt that the State Department of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction have not lived up to their responsibility because they recommended back in January of 1968 that the Van Buren School District receive $476,000 to help finance this reorganization.

The School District has not as of this date, received such moneys and it does not appear that they will receive any such moneys in the very near future. As a matter of fact, the Legislature will not reconvene until the second Wednesday in January, which means that unless there is a special session of the Legislature there will be NO funds forthcoming to the Van Buren School District.

The Van Buren School District feels that they cannot fairly represent the parents, students, and citizens of the School District unless such money is paid to the District and thus the School District instituted action against the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

A hearing was conducted before the Honorable George Martin, a Wayne County Circuit Court Judge, on Thursday, August 22nd. At that hearing an Assistant Attorney General of the State appeared and asked that the Van Buren School District suit be dismissed.

The Court in an unprecedented and landmark decision denied the Attorney General's request and granted the School District an early hearing on their complaint and further stated that in his opinion the State Board of Education had prematurely ordered the reorganization and he was of the opinion that the School District's position was a sound one.

The citizens of the Sumpter District should know that it is in their best interest that the Van Buren School District receive this money from the Legislature as a share of that money will be used to improve the educational facilities in the Sumpter District.

Therefore, we will continue to resist any premature reorganization of the Sumpter District until the job is completed by the State Board of Education. We intend to keep the citizens informed of periodic actions by the Courts or by the State Board, or both.

TEACHER HIRING PROBLEMS

In a statement The Belleville Area Human Relations Council said:

"The Belleville Area Human Relations Council has been deeply concerned over various aspects of the school situation in our community.

From the inception of our organization it has been clear more could be done by the schools, the school administration and the school board to further race relations and racial understanding. We have held several meetings and worked to this end on many occasions.

Miss Nancy Cash, a member of our Council Board of Directors, has represented us, in these concerns, before the local school board and with the State Board of Education.

On July 17 this year, our Council brought together staff persons of the State Board of Education and superintendents of several of the school districts because we were concerned to get both sides moving to effect the consolidation and meet more forthrightly the fears of teachers, parents and children of Sumpter.

the issue in hand is in the hiring of the loyal and qualified teachers of the Sumpter School District. On July 17 President Charles W. Bole promised those teachers that "if the millage vote of Aug. 5 passed he would promise the hiring of the qualified teachers." He also told us that the Van Buren Board was contemplating legal measures against the inequities and injustices that had been arbitrarily placed against the Board by the State Board of Education.

Mr. Bole did not, however, use this fact to side-step the issue of teacher employment.

With 80 teachers to employ in the period of time since that meeting, we of the Belleville Area Human Relations Council Board of Directors deeply regret that the School Administration under the direction of the Van Buren School Board has not (as far as is known at this writing) employed the dozen teachers that await employment.

Mr. Bole also promised that if the Sumpter people would help to get the millage vote passed he would see that Sumpter teachers would be the first to be employed.

The Belleville Area Human Relations Council awaits evidence that the Van Buren School Board, its officers, and

We call upon these officials to institute a generously integrated staff now!"

Two teachers of the reorganized Sumpter School District also concerned about re-employment issued the following statements on the Sumpter school dispute:

"This is the second reorganized school district in which I've taught - the third time I've had to apply for a new job. The fault is in unbusinesslike, indefinite procedure of the State Board of Education. They have filed every step along the way to adhere to the reorganization law which they wrote. They constantly presented us with disadvantages in place of the advantages which exist in the situation. Mr. Kaulitz is making the correct move. He is making the State Board accountable," said Miss Ellen Blue, of Sumpter Elementary School.

"The uncertainty of the situation in Sumpter School District and the unfairness of the way the teachers have been treated is too bad. Reorganized school districts should have some definite plans by which to operate. They should start in time so children won't be confused and upset. All of this could have been avoided if they'd just used their heads a little bit, and just planned for the high school students. That was Sumpter's problem," said Mrs. Muriel McKenzie, of Sumpter Elementary School.

BOARD RESISTS SPLIT-UP

School Board Aug. 12, Dale E. Kaulitz, school superintendent, disclosed.

The suit charges that the Van Buren School District was to receive $476,000 to help finance its part of the reorganization. The monies were recommended by the State Board of Education. This amount has not as yet been received by Van Buren School Board.

MacDonald reported to the Enterprise-Roman that the State Board of Education can't appropriate the monies. It is up to the state legislature and legislators will not reconvene until the second week in January, 1969.

A MOTION to dismiss the suit by Michigan Attorney General's Office was denied by Circuit Court Judge George T. Martin on Aug. 15.

At this hearing, Judge Martin in "an unprecedented and landmark decision" denied the dismissal motion and granted Van Buren School District an early hearing (session scheduled for Sept. 3).

The Court stated that in its opinion the State Board of Education had prematurely ordered the reorganization and that he, Judge Martin, was of the opinion that the School District's position was a sound one. (see statement of Van Buren School Board elsewhere in this issue).

Under the re-organization, Van Buren schools were to get 300 elementary school students and 250 secondary (junior and high school) students. In the last school year, Van Buren enrolled 134 Sumpter students in the high school.

MAC DONALD WHEN asked what is to happen to these students when school opens, said that the school board offered to take the same number of students as last year during the interim period until the court acts.

The suit stated that the Van Buren School District is already over crowded and to absorb another 300 elementary students in spite of receiving the inadequate elementary school will result in an intolerably overcrowded situation for which no financial relief has been granted.

The suit further charged that there has been no disposition at this time (filing of suit) relative to the teachers who are currently in the Sumpter School District.

The court action asks the court to make a binding declaration of rights that it is not the duty or responsibility of the Van Buren School District or effectuate the proposed plan of re-organization until full and complete guidelines are furnished by the State Board of Education and until adequate provisions are made for financial relief.

Huron River, Belleville Lake's Pollution Blame Aired

BELLEVILLE — The Huron River Anti-Pollution Committee consisting of various area conservation clubs, civic associations and service clubs met on Monday August 19, in its campaign to eliminate pollution of Huron River and Belleville Lake.

Glen Brown of the Wayne County Health Department, attended the session. He advised the members that the Health Department has expanded its sampling program of the Huron River and Belleville Lake. He stated that Belleville Lake has deteriorated 30 to 50 percent as much this year as it was last year. He advised the group that the tests indicate the lake is unsuitable for body contact.

BROWN FURTHER stated that the prime polluters were Ypsilanti Township and the Industrial Complex that disposes its waste into Willow Creek. That there has been no improvement in the operation of the Industry's or Ypsilanti Township in the pollution of the lake and that the lake will be unsuitable for body contact the rest of this year. He also advised that the Wayne County Health Department had not been successful in correcting the pollution because of its lack of power in Washtenaw County.

Glen Hare of the Michigan Conservation Department stated that the prime polluters were Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti Township and the Industrial plants, located on the Huron River.

He stated that if Ypsilanti Township disposed of its wastes into the Wayne County sewer system, it would only be able to take care of thirty to forty percent of the pollution that is dumped into Willow Creek. He also stated that the penalty of $500 a day was not a deterrent to industry but that the public image was the prime motivator for industry to stop its pollution.

JOHN CHASCSA of the Lake Erie Cleanup Committee stated that the Government enforces the law regarding the small polluter, the home owner, but does not enforce the law with regard to large polluters that dump 500 to 600 thousand gallons a day of pollution into the lake. Chascsa added that the U.S. Army Corp of Engineers has the power to stop all pollution but has itself used the Lake Erie as a dumping ground for pollution.

196,000 Cubic yards of pollutants were dumped into Lake Erie in one year by the Corp of Engineers, they who should be working to prevent pollution.

He asked the critical question: "if one individual is stopped from polluting the water, why not stop the industrial and municipal pollutants?" Ellis Amerman, of the Huron River Watershed Council stated that all is being done that can be under present existing legislation.

Gino Serafin, representing the U.A.W. Clean Water Committee said that if pollution was stopped today, it would take five hundred years to bring the water back to the same condition it was twenty five years ago.

He advised the committee to push for the approval of a 330 million dollar bond issue in the Nov. 5 election.

This money would be used by the state with matching federal funds to start the clean up of Michigan water, he said. Serafin pledged the full support of organized labor to the committee, and promised at least 30,000 signatures on the committee's petition in the support of the Anti-Pollution program.

A committee was appointed consisting of Bly, Phil Eller, Don Carlson, and Ray Suliman to meet with the representative of General Motors Corporation. The officers for the committee are: Chairman, Ray Suliman; Vice-Chairman, Phil Eller; Executive Secretary, Don Carlson; Recording Secretary, Janet Hilden; Corresponding Secretary, Louis Hamilton; Publicity Chairman, Ernest Ryback.

The Chairman of Petition Committee is Ted Hooten. A total of 15,000 signatures have been collected to date. A request was made by Ted Hooten to turn in petitions at 146 High Street, Belleville. Additional petitions may be picked up at this address.

Chamber Chatter

BY THEODORE F. KUCKELMAN
Executive Director
Chamber of Commerce

A hillbilly visiting an observatory was watching a man peer through a telescope. Suddenly, a star fell. "Good shot!" exclaimed the hillbilly.

He — "Then it's all set. We elope at midnight?"
She — "Yes, darling."
He — "Are you sure you have everything packed in your suitcase?"
She — "I'm positive. Papa and mamma helped me."

THE WALL STREET Journal recently pointed out that, back in the 20's each of us generated only 2.7 lbs. of trash per day; this has bounced to 4.5 lbs. per person today — and could go to 6 lbs. per day in the next 10 years. Multiply that figure by your community's population and your eyes will pop at the staggering daily disposal problem.

One could say — the more affluent, the better off we are — the trashier we get. So our technological ingenuity is being taxed on many fronts to keep the disposal problem both cheap, manageable, and perhaps even productive as fuel for power, land fills, fertilizer, etc.

But increasingly better ways to dispose of waste must be found — otherwise we are in danger of drowning in our own garbage.

How important are new products? Many major companies are realizing 50 percent of their current sales from products new in the last 10 years. Its predicted 75 percent of the nation's growth in sales volume in the next three years will come from new products.

Dates to remember in September:
Sept. 2, LABOR DAY
Sept. 14-15, BLUE ANGELS WILL BE AT WILLOW RUN AIRPORT
Sept. 22, FALL BEGINS
Sept. 23, JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Vote Sept. 5 Huron Sets Millage Meet

NEW BOSTON — A public meeting to answer questions regarding the Huron School District in connection with an upcoming millage election, will be held at the Huron Elementary School on Thursday, Aug. 29, at 8:00 p.m.

The election will be held on Thursday, Sept. 5.

A five-mill tax increase will be presented to the voters as part of a 10-mill package. The remaining five mills would be a renewal of an existing tax.

THE ELECTION is being held at the demand of 298 citizens of the district who petitioned the Board to seek operating funds for a fifth time.

After four millage election losses the Board had stated that it would not hold another tax election this year.

The millage defeats have brought about half day sessions for district elementary students.

Superintendent Byron Antcliff stated that the half days probably would not end until at least the second semester due to staffing problems at this time of the year.

BY ARCHDIOCESE

Nun is Given Major School Responsibility

DETROIT — Sister M. Emeline, O.P., has been appointed assistant superintendent of Archdiocese Detroit schools, with responsibilities affecting over 140,000 pupils in over 260 elementary schools.

This is Michigan's second largest single school organization, being surpassed only by Detroit's public school system. The Archdiocese is comprised of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Lapeer, Lenawee, Monroe, St. Clair and Washtenaw Counties.

The Rev. Father John B. Zwacz, superintendent of Catholic schools, said she will replace Sister Gertrude Marie, S.C., who has been called by her order, the Sisters of Charity in Ohio and Michigan, to be its Councilor and Supervisor. Her title also was assistant superintendent for elementary schools.

Sister Emeline received her primary education in Centerline, Mich., completed her high school work in Racine, Wis., took her B.A. degree from Aquinas College, Grand Rapids, and her M.A. degree from Catholic University, Washington, D.C.

SHE HAS also completed advance studies at Marquette University at Milwaukee, and at Michigan State University.

Sister Emeline has taught at all levels of education and has been principal of various schools, her last being St.

Clement's in her home town of Centerline. She also taught future teachers at Dominican College at Racine and at Aquinas College, Grand Rapids.

For the past seven years she has been supervisor of schools staffed by her community in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Belvil Hospital Administrator Describes Better Care Review

BELLEVILLE — To provide better patient care at the Belvil Community Hospital, a 70-bed medical facility at 105 Main street, a new procedure, has been added to the many safe guards already in force since the advent of Medicare.

William E. Hinchey, hospital administrator, made the following report on the new procedure — The Utilization Review.

With the advent of Medicare, a new procedure was added to the multitude of safe guards already in force for good in-patient hospital care. This procedure, long recommended and now a mandatory requirement of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, is the Utilization Review.

This review is exercised by the Utilization Committee, consisting of seven members of the Active Professional Staff. It is the responsibility of this Committee to: Review each case of continuous extended duration.

The Hospital Utilization review plan specifies the number of continuous days of Hospital stay following which the review is made to determine whether further in-patient hospital services are medically necessary. (in Belvil Hospital after 15 days).

REVIEWS FOR such purposes are made no later than the seventh day following the last day of the period of extended duration specified in the plan. No physician has review responsibility for any extended stay cases in which he is professionally involved.

Because there is significant differences of opinion among individual physicians in respect to valuation of medically necessary for in-patient services, the judgment of the attending physician in an extended stay case if given great weight and is not rejected except under unusual circumstances.

Records are kept of the activities of the committee and of the individual cases studied. The Hospital Administration studies these findings and acts on the administrative recommendations of the committee.

In cases concerning Medicare, if the Social Security Administration determines, on the basis of information obtained by a State Agency or by an intermediary during the course of its ongoing review of utilization practices that a hospital has substantially failed to make timely review of long stay cases, it may curtail payments made to the Hospital for Medicare patients.

THE ACTIVITY of the Utilization Committee is continuous and specific improvements have resulted in various areas of Hospital care. This is additional work for the Staff Doctors but they have been most cooperative. It is their intent and the intent of Administration that Belvil Hospital provides patient care and Utilization of beds that meets the highest standards.

Hinchey, stated that the above utilization plan is only one of the important factors being used to assure the aged patients of this area their rightful benefits.

Gary Kniffen Named West Willow Principal

BELLEVILLE — The appointment of Gary John Kniffen, 27, as principal of the West Willow Elementary School, 2060 Mary Catherine, Ypsilanti, was announced by Dale E. Kaulitz, superintendent of Van Buren Public Schools.

The Board of Education approved the appointment of Kniffen Aug. 19 on the recommendation of Kaulitz. He fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of Bobby Breeding, 33, who left the school system last April to manage the stock and tobacco farm operations of his father-in-law at Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Kniffen, who resides at 1742 Collegewood Drive, Ypsilanti, with his wife, Judy, was a sixth grade teacher at the Haggerty Road Elementary School the last four years.

He was born in Mt. Pleasant, March, 25, 41. He graduated from Eastern Michigan University in 1964 with a Bachelor of Science Degree and obtained his Master of Arts Degree in August, 1967. He began his services with the Van Buren Schools in September, 1964 at the Haggerty Road School.

Labor Day Thought

Labor Day provides a time for all to salute the millions of men and women who are America's workforce. In turn, it seems like an opportune time for those of us who make up the greatest workforce in the world, to give a moment's thought to the unexcelled working conditions we enjoy, and to the security shared in knowing that our personal and family obligations can be met.

Maybe it's a good time to consider the source of much of this security — "second paychecks" in the form of benefits which touch nearly every aspect of our lives: health, education, disability, leisure, recreation, savings plans, insurance, retirement and even death, to name a few.

It will cost U. S. companies an estimated $70 billion in 1968 to provide this security for their employees, and many experts feel the actual total is millions higher.

These fringe benefits are a mutual investment by management and labor in the continued well-being of employees and provide added evidence of the unsurpassed rewards of participating in life the American way.

Our Community Is It Ready?

Even more shocking than the civil disturbances that have beset American cities in recent months is the reluctance or inability of authorities to restore order quickly enough to prevent widespread property damage and vandalism.

The riots in Washington, D.C., last spring, where mobs took over and looting was rampant, were the most shocking of all. Since then, there is evidence of strengthening law enforcement authority.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce has taken the lead in organizing community forces for protection in the event of civil disturbances. These disturbances have shown that local police may not have adequate man power immediately available.

In some communities, it has been found that stronger laws are needed to give local governments power to do what needs to be done to meet emergencies.

LOCAL BUSINESS leaders in many communities are meeting with civic officials to determine lines of action that must be taken quickly when a disturbance impends. A national headquarters has been set up in the Pentagon in Washington, which is reportedly able to alert troops in any location in the country within 35 minutes. All of these things are to the good.

As the newly elected president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce declares, "We cannot abide lawlessness, nor can we justify short-run violations of the law in hope that it will bring about peace in the long-term."

"Human rights cannot long exist in a chaotic and disorderly society. They are assured and preserved only by prompt and reasonable enforcement of the law..."

Prevention of civil disturbances must begin at the local level. How well prepared is our community to meet an emergency of this nature?

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Once again we find the request for rezoning of the McMullan property to multiple dwelling is before the township Planning Commission. Ordinarily, when a vote is taken on an issue (at a considerable expense and inconvenience to the taxpayers), the issue is considered resolved. It surely would have been, had the vote been in favor of rezoning.

The site plan has now been "revised" to make it more palatable by reducing the number of units to 464, (70% two bedroom apartments, 20% one bedroom, and 10% three bedroom) with the remainder of the project in single family dwellings.

Without considering the aspects of increased police and fire protection, required road building and maintenance, inadequacy of the Belleville road access into Belleville, probably increased school requirements, making our area less attractive to new industry location, and over-populating what is presently a pleasant living area; we should evaluate the history of the "Battle of McMullan Point."

The property was purchased with full knowledge by the purchaser that the property would have to be rezoned in order for him to carry out building plans.

While the purchaser states he was told by someone in the Township Offices that he should not expect any difficulty in having the property rezoned, such a statement by a Township Official or anyone else would have been meaningless, as the rezoning question would eventually be determined by the will of the people.

The referendum vote should have been decisive and final, and rezoning should not be reconsidered by the Planning Commission unless there is shown by the petitioner a substantial change from the previous request and the manner the new request will no longer adversely affect the community.

The fact that the property was purchased before rezoning does not in any way obligate the Planning Commission, Township Officials, or the populace to take any action to rectify a poor decision by the purchaser to buy the property in the hope that he could have it rezoned.

WE ARE all aware that all available Van Buren Township property will eventually be used for other than agricultural purposes, especially the property around Belleville Lake. Let us be reminded, however, that research has shown that animals which are forced to live under crowded conditions develop many of the anti-social traits that fill the crime pages of our big city newspapers.

This is to suggest two of many possible uses for this property.

- Consider a rezoning request to 50% Town House Units, and 50% single family dwellings, both to quality and other standards commensurate with other new building on the lake.
- Consider Township purchase of the property for a township recreation area complete with golf course, community building, beach & swimming area, etc. with a grant of up to seventy five percent available for such purposes from the Dept. of Housing and Urban Development.

This is perhaps the only area on the lake large enough to build a complete recreation area, and once developed, will never again be available. It is already very obvious such a recreation area is needed here. The 1970's will find the area very sorely in need. Surely our first responsibility is to wisely plan for the future and for future generations.

If It Fitz... 'Little Girls Are Precious'

By JIM FITZGERALD

A terrible thing is happening at our house. Our 12-year-old daughter, Chrissie, is quickly becoming 18.

Constant readers (Mother and Aunt Madeline) will remember when our other daughter, Karen, became a teenager. That was over 5 years ago. She was to be my first try at raising a "terrible teen" and I wrote a column full of trepidation. All my friends with experience had warned me about teenagers — especially girl teenagers with phones growing out of their ears and hair out of their ears and hair hanging lower than their skirts.

Besides, I had read Ann Landers and I knew the woods were full of young whippersnappers just aching to get my daughter into trouble. My task, I figured, was to limit her time in the woods and to guide her along the right trails, building angry roadblocks whenever necessary. I ended up building a lot of them.

A FEW WEREN'T high enough, and a few probably shouldn't have been built at all. Fathers are not automatically right by virtue of their parenthood. Dear Old Dad is just a teenager 20 years later, 50 pounds heavier, and maybe a little wiser if his kids are lucky.

Anyway, our first teenager is now creeping toward 20 and I am still not the youngest grandfather in my block. To each his own, but to me an 18-year-old mother is a sad thing. She and her husband are permanently saddled during the beautiful bareback years — years for frisking and galloping and tasting and thinking and learning. Besides, those deadly divorce statistics prove that most teenage marriages, plighted in passion and nurtured in immaturity, are miserable flops.

All my friends and Ann Landers were right. There is nothing easy about helping a girl grow from childhood to adulthood. There are some things a father can never understand — eye make-up on eyes always covered by hair, for instance. Or the appeal of a dirty-shirted boy with the manners of a billygoat. Or why "all the other kids" are constantly doing something that gives Old Dad the screaming fits. Or why a little girl can't realize that her parents are 15 times smarter than she is.

OUR 12-YEAR-OLD likes to cook fancy meals. She'll clip complicated recipes out of Good Housekeeping and work all afternoon preparing a feast to gladden Daddy's big stomach. And then she'll serve it on paper plates so she won't have dishes to wash. Explain me that. She even insists that we all use the same knife to butter our bread, it's a throw-away knife swiped from the drive-in.

But I guess it isn't necessary for fathers to understand daughters. After all, I don't understand their mother, either. I simply know that little girls are precious and they grow no less precious as they switch from dolls to hope chests. Dad just worries a little more and tries a little harder.

So now it is near time to launch a 2nd daughter into incredible teenland. It should be fascinating. For one thing, we'll find out which of us learned the most tricks from her big sister. I am betting on Chrissie.

WHEN SHE begins giggling about boys, and combing her hair for 2 hours before breakfast, my first inclination will probably be to enroll in a monastery for 8 years. But not really. You couldn't pay me to miss the next few years. Now that I've staggered most of the way through the woods with one daughter, it will be interesting to revisit familiar trails and re-examine old roadblocks.

I'll give Chrissie the same map her sister used but brought up to date to conform with the changing times. For instance, I'll withdraw the fatherly snarls against gentlemen callers with long hair. Old Dad looked in the mirror one day and decided the young boys with shaggy haircuts don't look any goofier than I do with a brush cut.

Which prompts a sudden and startling thought. In 3 years out son will be a teenager. Another whippersnapper for the woods, egad.

I must make certain he doesn't find his sister's map.

Vote Registry Deadline Scheduled

The deadline for registering in the November general election is Oct. 4.

City and township clerks from area communities have all issued calls to residents to be sure to register and vote in the upcoming election.

Mrs. Erma Jean Payne, Van Buren Township clerk, stated that her office will be opened daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and to 7 p.m. on Tuesdays to accept registration. The office is closed on Saturday.

She added that if for any reason a resident is unable to come to her office to register that they contact the Township Hall by calling 941-0434, or 697-7339 or 697-9169 and arrangements will be made to have the caller registered.

Those who may want a bumper sticker stating "I am registered are You?" prepared by 600 UAW-CIO are available free at the Township Hall.

Total vote Van Buren registration stands at 4,189 as of edition time.

Alfred J. Perry, Romulus Township clerk, announced that his office will be open for registrations from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and on Tuesday to 6 p.m. except Saturday when the office is closed.

He also stated that persons unable to register because of illness or an emergency are asked to telephone the Township Hall 941-0666.

ESCORTED TO the sanctuary by her father, Pam appeared in a formal creation of nylon and lace over taffeta. The A-line gown was designed with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline and elbow sleeves. A train attached at the shoulders cascaded to chapel length as she walked.

Her bouffant veil of silk illusion fell to shoulder length from a headpiece of seed pearls encircling nylon petals. Completing her bridal finery was a bouquet of cascading white carnations centered with a detachable corsage of white roses.

In identical ensembles, with the exception of their flowers, were Cynthia Zaborowski, who was her sister's maid of honor and Christine Ammon and Martha Jane Hanson, both of Belleville.

Their toe-touching frocks were of fruit green chiffon over linen styled with fitted bodices, three-quarter sleeves, and A-line skirts. Bow headresses matched their gowns and were accented by shoulder-length veils. The honor maid carried a nosegay of green carnations surrounded by yellow carnations with green background and streamers. The bridesmaids held yellow carnation nosegays.

THE BRIDEGROOM and his ushers donned their dress blues for the occasion. Best man was his brother, Frank Marshall, of Timmins, Ontario, and groomsmen were 1/Sgt. Edwin Smith, of Wayne, and Sgt. Ken Lama, of Monroe.

A poolside reception at the Zaborowski home followed the ceremony after which the newlyweds departed for a 10-day honeymoon in Northern Canada. They are now making their home in Trenton.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Zaborowski chose an A-line gown of lime green crepe and chiffon with silver shoes and purse. Her corsage was of pale yellow carnations. Mrs. Marshall wore a two-piece frock of yellow taffeta with a lace jacket and yellow accessories. A corsage of green carnations completed her ensemble.

A 1967 alumnus of Belleville High School, Pam later graduated from Virginia Farrell School of Cosmetology. Her husband, currently serving as a Marine Corps Recruiter in River Rouge, has spent four years in the service, 17 months of which were duty in Vietnam.

All Around The Town...

WITH LEE
THE PLAY'S THE THING

A TINY COUNTRY in mid-Europe is about to go bankrupt due to the exploitation of their only export product by an American winery. "The Mouse That Roared" humorously deals with a declaration of war on the U.S. in order to receive foreign aid when the small country will undoubtedly be defeated.

This is the gist of the three-act comedy opening tonight (Wednesday, August 28) at Belleville Junior High under the direction of James Lightfoot, a fifth grade teacher at Edgemont School. The production is being presented by the Belleville Summer Drama Group which Jim hopes will become an annual program.

Curtain time tonight as tomorrow and Friday (August 29 and 30) is 7:30 p.m. with a matinee slated for 2:00 Friday. General admission is $1.

Aiding the director-producer in his efforts are Gladys Baldwin, assistant director; Jonathan Hale, stage manager; Glenn Kottke, lighting; Brian Crowe, sound; Mary Ballard, set design; and Shirley Books, Fran Freysinger and Kathleen Cook, costumes.

Still others involved are Dorothy Florian, Make-up; Lee Upton, publicity; Flo Hudge, promotion; Margaret Gollwitzer, program; and Pat Ryback and Velma Kulzer, house management.

The general public is invited to take a respite from everyday problems and burdens and enjoy the antics of a make-believe country and its citizens.

MOTHER RETURNS HOME

BACK IN Athens, Alabama after a 10-day visit in Michigan is Mrs. Bert E. Smith, mother of Mrs. John Roberts, of Lake Pointe Pass. While here Mrs. Smith divided her time between her three daughters - Marge, in Belleville; Opal Watts, in Garden City, and Ruth Nelson, in Ypsilanti.

During her four-day stay in Belleville, Mrs. Smith and Marge were luncheon guests at the homes of Gwen Liebler and Louise Hope and enjoyed dinner at the Donovan Partridge home.

This past Friday Marge flew out to Denver, Colorado to join her husband, John, for a four-day week-end. John, who's been away most of the month, is attending jet school for Universal Airlines.

Couple Plan June - 1969 Wedding

A wedding in June of 1969 is being planned by Evelyn R. Garrett, of Ecorse, and Norbert L. Wegienka, Jr., of Romulus. Their engagement is announced by Mr. and Mrs. H. Richard Garrett, of 32 W. Glenwood, Ecorse, parents of the bride-elect.

Miss Garrett graduated from St. Francis Xavier High School and the Detroit Business Institute. She is currently employed as a secretary at Great Lakes Steel, Ecorse.

Her fiancé, son of the senior Norbert L. Wegienka, of 13702 Harrison road, Romulus, is an alumnus of Romulus High School and Olivet College. He is presently attending graduate school at the University of Michigan and is a teacher and football coach at Our Lady of Lourdes High School, River Rouge.

CURTAIN RISES TONIGHT -- "The Mouse That Roared", a three-act comedy, will open a three-day schedule tonight, Wednesday, August 28, at 7:30 p.m. Promotion and publicity chairmen, Mrs. William Hudge (left) and Mrs. Frank Upton, hold one of the many posters that are around town to inform citizens of the chance to enjoy local talent in a local setting. The Belleville High School cafeteria has been reserved for tonight's presentation as well as those scheduled for Thursday and Friday, August 29 and 30, at 7:30 p.m. Friday's plans include a two o'clock matinee -- a chance for many youngsters to see the production directed by James Lightfoot.

Son's Wedding Takes Kellas' To Alabama

By PEARL MORRIS
WH 1-1187

Mrs. Hugh M. Kellas and daughter, Annie, of Walnut drive, flew to Mobile, Alabama August 17 to attend the wedding of their son and brother, George Allan, to Judith Angela Geer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vasco Geer, of Mobile. The wedding took place Sunday, August 18, in the parlor of the Dauphin Way Methodist Church. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Following a honeymoon on the Gulf, the young couple was to leave for Kansas City, where the groom will do postgraduate work for the next year at the University of Kansas Medical Center. He is a 1964 graduate of Central Michigan University and received his PhD from the University of Alabama in May of this year. His bride received her M.A. there at the same time.

Pvt. Terry Hughey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughey, of Superior road, is serving as a mechanic with the U.S. Army, stationed in Germany. Terry has been in service for a year and a half and has been overseas about four months.

Sue Ellen Kolman of Southgate was a visitor the past week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Icenogle, on Huron River drive South. Sue Ellen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kolman (she's the former Barbara Icenogle).

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wahrman, of Wahrman road, spent the weekend at this lake home at Anchor Bay, Friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robaciewicz, of Romulus, were the Wahrman's guests there.

Last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Grant VanAernum, of Romulus avenue, visited at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones, at Leslie, Michigan.

Little Eric Morris, son of the Donald Morrises of East

Lansing, celebrated his second birthday of August 26 over the weekend at the homes of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morris, on Huron River drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hayward of Belleville, and with other relatives.

Back home after vacationing for two weeks at Higgins Lake are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Eves and daughter, Mary, of Huron River drive. Their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Eves, Jr., of Wayne spent the weekend with them there.

Mr. and Mrs. August Kadau of Huron River drive South entertained at a party Sunday afternoon in celebration of the third birthday of their son, Tony. Thirteen children and 10 adult relatives joined in the happy occasion and presented the honoree with gifts. A pretty birthday cake was served with ice cream. Tony's birthday actually falls on August 20.

Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Romulus Community Methodist Church enjoyed an outing to Island Lake over the weekend, accompanied by chaperones, Mrs. Harvey Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Prill and Homer Green, all of Belleville. Young people included in the group were: John Wagner, Melvin Oakley, Sheila Oakley, Karen Vena, Sharon Vena, Joy Rhodes, Bruce Jackson, Jim Bird, Gerry Rhodes, Jan Prill, Dan Prill, Peggy Green and Curt Savage. Highlight of the weekend was a 14-mile canoe trip from Milford to Kent Lake in Kensington Park, which they took on Sunday. They also enjoyed swimming and boating.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship group of the Romulus Community Church is in the midst of a membership drive at this time. They invited young folks (grades 9 through 12) to join their group which meets each Thursday evening at the church.

PLYMOUTH - Thirteen may be considered unlucky by many, but it isn't by members of the Plymouth Rotary Club who predict the 13th annual outdoor chicken barbecue on Sunday, Sept. 8 will be the biggest and best in history.

It was 13 years ago in 1956 that the club started a small barbecue to finance the cost of some new playground equipment for the city's playfield.

Mrs. Schaerer Feted Belatedly On Birthday

Mrs. Dan Heuer, of Farmington, and her mother, Mrs. Mertie Schaerer, of Biggs street, were Sunday afternoon guests of the Robert Schaerer family, of Wear road. The occasion was a belated celebration for their mother's 75th birthday.

Mrs. Schaerer was presented with a money tree - a gift from Robert and his wife, Nancy; her grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dudek and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Lasserty; and her great-grandchildren, Keith Dudek and Melissa Lasserty. The trunk of the tree was covered with dimes for good luck. Mrs. Heuer (Eleanor) also presented her mother with a money gift. Homemade ice cream and cake were enjoyed by all present.

Trailer Shipments Increase

Mobile Home shipments in the states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, and Wisconsin increased 15.1 percent in April 1968 as compared to the same month of '67. Michigan had all other states in their region with 1,050 units being shipped to dealers, which was the 15.1 percent increase.

Michigan is also a major producer of Mobile Homes and ships almost as many to the other states of the region as are sold here.

Predictions by Elrich and Lavidge, Chicago based statistical firm for the industry, indicate that 1968 production in Michigan will definitely exceed 20,000 units.

St. Anthony's Is Setting For Clayton-Zuroff Vows

* HONEYMOON IN SAUGATUCK *

A week-long honeymoon in Saugatuck followed the August 10 wedding of Jacquelyn J. Zuroff and Harold A. Clayton, both of Belleville. Now making their home at 519 North Harris, Ypsilanti, the newlyweds were feted at a reception at Rogalle's Lounge following their six o'clock nuptials at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

Double ring vows were solemnized by Father Richard C. Welsh before an altar adorned with white gladioli. Candles marked the pews where some 100 guests sat as they watched the bride approach the sanctuary with her father.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Zuroff, of 10905 Dewitt road, and Mrs. Ann Clayton, of 34 Potter drive, are parents of the young couple.

Mach Family Reunion At Lower Huron Park

The Mach Family Annual Reunion finally waited out bad weather and was held August 11 at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park, with 90 members and five guests in attendance.

A long picnic table was laden with an array of foods, brought potluck style and the dishes were judged for "most attractive" label. The winner was Annette Mach, with honors going to her for her watermelon half, scooped out and filled with melon balls, blueberries and grapes.

Games, with prizes for the competitors, kept the youngsters busy, while their seniors played cards or just visited, catching up on family news.

The communities represented included Belleville, Dearborn, Detroit, Inkster, Greenville, Livonia, New Hudson, New Boston, Northville, Romulus, Plymouth, Wayne, Westland and Las Vegas, Nev.

Michael Cochran, of Las Vegas, grandson of Sophia Cochran, was honored as the person coming the longest distance to attend; youngest person on hand was nine-month-old Michelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mach - and oldest member of the clan present was Frank Johnson, 71, of Romulus. It was recorded that since the 1967 reunion, there has been four births, two marriages and three deaths in the family.

Committee for this year's get-together consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burnie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marlow and Mr. and Mrs. William Schwartz, all of Wayne.

Mrs. Griffin Honored At Cradle Shower

A baby shower for Mrs. Martin A. Griffin was given Friday, August 16, by Mrs. Walter Rounsifer, Jr. at her home in Willis. Mrs. Kathy Edwards (the former Kathy Klimecki), of Plymouth, was co-hostess for the occasion.

Some 30 guests gathered from Willis, Belleville, and New Boston and enjoyed a number of games followed by prizes and a lunch. The door award was won by Jenny Klimecki, of Belleville.

Two week-end guests who came for the shower were the honoree's grandparents, the senior Walter Rounsifers, of Snover, formerly of Wear road, Belleville.

Mrs. Griffin, the former Diane Rounsifer, is making her home with her parents while her husband is serving with the U.S. Army at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

The 1963 tobacco crop was a world record, 9.2 billion pounds.

DICK and BILL HOOK

A joint bank account is preferred by most married couples, and with good reason. It automatically gives both partners the opportunity - and responsibility - of controlling family expenditures. Most or all of the family's earnings go into one account, and both husband and wife draw checks which develop financial cooperation. A joint account also helps you see more easily where your family money has gone. Whatever checking account system you prefer, a portion of your family earnings should be considered as a "fixed expense," and deposited regularly in a savings account.

You will always save time and money when you rely on the complete and dependable cleaning service at HOOK'S CLEANERS INC., 32328 Mich. Ave., Wayne, PA2-0162, 35 Main, Belleville, 697-8600, 37311 Goddard, Romulus, 941-1010. Fast, one-day service.

HELPFUL HINT:
An old washing machine with a top cover is good for storing dog food. It holds a large quantity and keeps it dry and safe from mice and bugs.

CARRYING A cascade bouquet of eucalyptus lilies, gladioli, and ivy surrounding a detachable white orchid, the bride was gown in nylon organza with lace inserts. The beaded bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and wristpoint sleeves and falling from the empire waistline was a full train, frosted with lace and rose appliques.

A petaled headpiece of chiffon, lace and beads clasped her elbow-length veil of illusion to complete her bridal ensemble.

Rainbow hues were selected for the bridal quintet headed by honor attendant, Mrs. Susan Niemi, the bride's niece from Dearborn Heights. Her lavender chiffon frock was designed in the empire mode with an attached chiffon train. A crown of lavender chiffon and daisies held her brief veil and she held a bouquet of matching mums, and white roses surrounding a center of white daisies.

In identical dresses with bouquets of white daisies and mums to match their gowns were Carrietta Pierman, of Belleville; Mrs. Eveann Dormanen, of Romulus, the bridegroom's sister; and Deborah Parent, of Westland, and Roberta Beattie, of Northampton, Massachusetts, both nieces of the bride. Their dresses were in yellow, apricot, turquoise, and pink.

SIX-YEAR OLD Rebecca Tontalo, daughter of the Robert Tontalos, of Belleville, served as flowergirl at her cousin's wedding. Her pale blue ensemble was a miniature version of the senior attendants' and she carried a basket filled with daisies. Scott Graham, five, son of the James E. Grahams, of Belleville, carried out the role of ringbearer at his aunt's wedding.

George Simpkins, of Milan, was asked to be best man. The corps of ushers included Fred Wenzel, of Ypsilanti; Gary Gorham, of Buffalo, New York; and Roger Thurston, of Plymouth.

The bride graduated from Belleville High School in 1964 and from Eastern Michigan University this past June. A member of Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society, she will teach this fall at St. John's Elementary School, Ypsilanti. In 1962 Belleville High alumnus, Harold will graduate in December from Cleary College. A member of the Naval Submarine Reserve, he is employed as Manager of Communication Services for Universal Airlines.

visit to Jane's parents, the Anthony Gielinskis, former W. Huron River drive residents, while there.

The beaches were their prime targets and on the 15th the two ladies celebrated their back-to-back birthdays by spending the day at Fort Lauderdale Beach. Pier 66's panoramic view of the city and Ocean World were also part of their vacation.

THE JOE SMOLEN family, of Fret road, recently returned from vacationing at their summer residence on Higgins Lake. Smolen's guest during the two-weeks' stay was Cindy Dodd of Belleville and together they visited the "Enchanted Music Box" at Houghton Lake and enjoyed water skiing with Mark Gielinski at his family's resort across the lake. Three friends, Rick Keuster, Bruce Reed, and Randy Sipos, all of Southgate, shared the action-packed two weeks.

ONE CANDLE

SHERILL ANN McDaniel celebrated her first birthday with a party August 14 on the McDaniel's back lawn, which was gayly festooned with lanterns, streamers and balloons.

Those who came to wish "Sher" a happy birthday were Jimmy Ruppel, Roger Brown, Pam and Brian Barker, Jack and Debbie Stark, Jeff Fararo and Ramon and Mark Laws. Other important guests were Grandma and Grandpa Basnaw, Aunt Janet, and Sher's big brother, Frankie.

Hats, horns and 'goodie-bags' were presented to the young guests who shared Sherri's Goldilocks and the Three Bears birthday cake.

HERE 'N THERE

IN LAST week's column we inadvertently omitted the name of Mrs. Patricia Speaks from our story on the Methodist tour which some 10 Belleville folks enjoyed. Pat was definitely along to enjoy the sites of Europe with her fellow townsmen... MRS. ALBERT OSTROWSKI's recent birthday was made especially nice this year since her daughter, Mrs. Walter (Isabel) Wilson, jetted in from San Jose, California in honor of the occasion. Isabel, who just recently moved to the West Coast from Harmony lane, was here for a week with her two sons, Phil and Greg.

September Bride-Elect Is Feted

A bridal shower was held Monday evening, August 19, in honor of Peggy Rhodes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rhodes, of Belleville, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Bill (Mary) Oakley, of Tobine road, Romulus.

Assisting Mrs. Oakley with the hostess duties was her daughter, Shelia. About 30 ladies, friends and relatives of the bride-elect, enjoyed lunch and games appropriate to the occasion. They presented Peggy with a lovely assortment of gifts.

Miss Rhodes will become the bride of David P. Dove, Jr. Saturday, September 14, in a nuptial mass to be performed at St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Belleville.

Needles and pins and thread all stay together where you can find them if you make a miniature pin cushion out of a spool of thread. Just stick a cotton cosmetic ball in the hole in one end of the spool, and keep pins and a needle there.

Lakeside Lawn Reception Follows Cameron-Thom Vows

Toronto, Stratford, and Windsor were on the Canadian honeymoon itinerary of the newly wed Donald Camerons who are now making their home at the Douglas Arms Apartments in Detroit.

Leonna Thom, daughter of the A. Rae Thoms, of 368 Liberty street, Belleville, became Mrs. Cameron in a July 20 ceremony at Trinity Episcopal Church, Belleville. The Rev. Robert MacDonald presided at the double ring nuptials at four in the afternoon with some 300 guests attending.

White gladioli, mums, carnations, and four gold candelabrum graced the altar as Leonna approached with her father.

AT THE reception which followed on the Thom's lakeside lawn, Mrs. Thom received in a pink coat-dress ensemble with a deeper shade of pink for her accessories. A corsage of pink and white gladioli completed her costume. The bridegroom's mother donned a gold and silver gown with gold accessories and added a yellow rose corsage to her ensemble.

Guests from Hamilton, Toronto, and Stratford, Ontario; Sault Ste. Marie, Chicago, Texas, and surrounding cities danced to Hilton Henderson's band and cruised Belleville Lake on board Roland Gentle's float boat. Hostesses at the reception were Mrs. J. Weems and daughter, Norma. Changing to a silk print dress in pinks and fuchsia and carrying a white coat, the new Mrs. Cameron and her husband were "piped" away to their honeymoon by her cousin, Harry Wright, of Hamilton, Ontario, who played the "Highland Wedding March" on the bagpipes.

An alumnus of Belleville High, Lee graduated as a radiologic technologist in 1968 from Annapolis Hospital, Wayne. She is currently employed at Plymouth General Hospital, Detroit. Don graduated from Redford High in 1964 and from Wayne State University in 1968. He is spending the summer working for the Wayne County road Commission.

New England's Historical Spots On Vacation Itinerary

By MRS. JOSEPH SPRING
OX 9-4021

The Misses Mary McLaughlin, of Saginaw Kathleen McCarthy, and Sara Potter returned last week after a vacation trip to Massachusetts. Traveling through Ontario their first stop was at Niagara Falls. Making their headquarters at Falmouth Heights, Mass., they toured Cape Cod and visited the many historical places in and around Boston and Provincetown.

Mrs. George Whitton and daughter, Marilyn, from Hampshire, England, are spending three weeks with her husband, George Whitton, who has been making his home with Mrs. Nina Todd, of Liberty street, since being employed by the Ford Motor Co. The Whittons plan to make a trip to Niagara Falls and through Northern Michigan and the upper peninsula while they are here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoag were dinner guests last Sunday of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foley, of Adrian. In the afternoon they called upon their brother, John Hoag, who is a patient at Bixby Hospital in the above city.

After spending most of a two weeks vacation visiting relatives in Winnipeg, Neepawa, Minnedosa, and riding mountain Provincial Park, in Manitoba, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Saunders motored home through Michigan's upper peninsula stopping at Charlevoix for a couple of days with Clayton's mother, Mrs. Lillian Moore, and the week-end at the Harold Klais cottage at Frankfort, they arrived home Sunday evening. Mr. & Mrs. Robert Saunders left Sunday for their new home at Fort Jefferson, Long Island.

Lions Club Meeting Is Tonight

BELLEVILLE — The Belleville Lions Club will hold a meeting tonight (Wednesday, Aug. 28) at 7 p.m. at Rogalle's Lounge.

The program will include "New Breed of Cat", a color movie about the Detroit Lions 1968 Football Team under the sponsorship of the National Bank of Detroit, Belleville Branch, James Egan, president, announced.

The recently organized Lions Club is opened to all civic-minded men in the area for membership.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

ON DESIGNATION OF A DISTRICT AREA FOR URBAN RENEWAL PROJECT NO. 1

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that by direction of the City Council of the City of Belleville and pursuant to the provisions of Act 189 of the Public Acts of 1968, a public hearing will be held on Tuesday, the 10th day of September, 1968, at 8:00 o'clock p.m. in the Council Chambers at 6 Main Street in the City of Belleville, County of Wayne and State of Michigan for the purpose of granting any person interested the right to be heard by the City Council on a proposed district area surrounding the designated Urban Renewal Project No. 1 and for giving any person interested the right to be heard on the proposed development area (Urban Renewal Project No. 1).

The District area proposed is:

That portion of the City of Belleville lying on both sides of Liberty Street between Belleville Road and Huron River Drive; and Northwesterly of that portion of Huron River Drive South of Liberty Street; and that portion lying west of Sumpter (South Street) extended Northerly to a point where it intersects Huron River Drive.

Urban Renewal Area No. 1 (Development area) which has heretofore been designated by resolution of the Council is proposed to be:

Lots 249 through 256, both inclusive, of Assessor's Belleville Plat No. 5

Irvin W. Stech

where Robert will be teaching art in a tri-county school and his wife will be teaching in the elementary grades.

Jack and Sarah Wiggett, of 7801 West 96th St. Terrace, Overland Park, Kansas, wish to take this opportunity to thank their Belleville friends for their prayers and many cards and letters. Jack is now home from the hospital and on the 20th he received many cards remembering his 41st birthday. He and his wife, the former Sarah Frigard, are both Belleville High School graduates of the class of 1945.

Little Lissa Anne, daughter of the Morton Potters, of Wayne, has been a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Potter, of Wabash street, several days this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Boldt were Saturday evening callers on friends in Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. William Monroe.

The Misses Carol Heliste, of Southfield, Janet Lucas, of Detroit, Barbara Lake, of Pontiac, and Sharlene Tator attended a two weeks summer work shop at Colonial Williamsburg, Va., during Aug. 5th through Aug. 16th. Enroute home Carol and Sharlene visited Virginia Beach, Washington, D.C., Lancaster, Pa., and were over night guests of Carol's Aunt in Allentown, Pa. They also toured the Hershey factory at Hershey, Pa., and arrived home last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Martin, of North Fort Myers, Fla., were calling on friends in Belleville Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Martin will be remembered here as the former Kittie Ford, a one time resident of Main street.

Miss Faith Gorab, of Clifton, N.J., who has been a guest of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoag, of Liberty street, and other relatives in this vicinity, returned to her home Sunday evening.

While here she and her grandparents were dinner guests of the Paul Hoag family, of Ann Arbor, and on Wednesday the senior Hoag's with Faith and grandchildren, Janie Ralls of Rawsonville road, and Karen Hoag, of Ann Arbor, spent the day in Jackson with the Donald Hoag family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sherlock, of Long Lake near Hillsdale, are spending some time with the latter's sister, Mrs. Eva Duquette, of Savage road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton, of Bedell street, returned last week end after a two week trailer trip in Northern Michigan. They spent a week camping on Lake Charlevoix at Boyne City, a few days at Higgins Lake, called on former Belleville residents, the Fred Shermans, at St. Helen, spent a few days with the Walter Nollfs at Long Lake near Hale, and the weekend at North Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wolfe, of St. Petersburg, Fla., were recent callers on the latter's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Atyeo, of Church street. They also called on several friends in the city. Mrs. Wolfe is the former Ruth Atyeo, a one-time Belleville resident.

Dr. J. H. Tator, of High street, and brother, Lawrence Tator, of Detroit, spent several days this past week in New York State where they were guests of relatives, an aunt and uncle. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Petrillo, and a brother, Maurice Tator and family of Albany, and a sister & husband, Mr. & Mrs. Vernon Lloyd, of Middleburg.

Little Michael Muncie of Ann Arbor was a weekend guest of his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton, of Bedell street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Raymond, Jr., and sons Douglas and Tim returned Sunday evening after enjoying a few days camping at Timber Shores near Traverse City and at Manistee on Lake Michigan.

SCHOOL DAYS AGAIN — Area schools open their doors for the new school year next week. Above Romulus High School students were caught on the steps of the high school last Friday by our photographer as they were about to enter school for scheduling of programs for next year that will be repeated many times over by area students. Left to right are: Darcel Green, Cynthia Harris, Susie Player, Roxann Lee, John Nairemore, Rance Thomas and Bronson Bell.

School Bus Transportation Director Answers Inquiries

BELLEVILLE -- Many questions have been received by administrative staff at the Board of Education offices of the Van Buren Public Schools in regard to school bus transportation.

And in the interest of safety, efficiency and more pleasant rides to and from school for students, Gerald E. McKelvey, director of transportation issued the following information, rules and bus programs:

RENT A TRUCK
Pick Up - Stakes - Grain bed, Hyd. Lift Gate-Moving Vans, Drive Yourself and save 2/3.
A truck for your every hauling need -

● School bus routes are now being set up and will be mailed to each family. These should be received prior to Sept. 5, the first day of school.

If you do not receive a notice in the mail, please check with a neighbor or call the Transportation Office. It should be noted that these routes are sent out to provide a smooth operation at the start of the school year and that these routes and stops are subject to change if necessary as determined by Director of Transportation.

● We are planning no basic changes in transportation policy with the exception of reducing the number of stops per mile on some routes to bring them into line with the rest of our routes and into conformance with a State Department of Education recommendation that for reasons of safety "bus stops should be limited to four per mile."

live midway between two stops a quarter mile apart the students may have to walk 220 yards to board the bus. In some instances where it is not possible to route a bus on a given section of road, students may have to walk a quarter mile or more, but to the best of my knowledge, no students will be required to walk over a half mile to board a bus.

● Parents should have their children at the closest stop as indicated on the route sheet sent to them for the school their children attend.

The route description and list of stops should give some indication as to when the bus will arrive, but as a precautionary measure the students should be out a little earlier the first week of school. After that the drivers will be able to operate on a tighter schedule and the time children leave to catch the bus can be adjusted accordingly.

side of the street when the bus arrives. Even the delay of students having to cross the street after the bus arrives, if this occurred at each stop, could cause the bus to be as much as ten minutes late in arriving at school.

● Parents should instruct their children in proper conduct and good safety habits to and from the bus stop, and at the bus stop. Many of the calls I receive regard children misbehaving or being hurt on the way to or from the bus stop or while the children are awaiting the arrival of the bus.

We at the school are powerless to control these situations, therefore, it is the responsibility of individual parents to do so.

● Once the children are aboard the bus we at the school are able to take charge, but again parental assistance plays a major role in the child's conduct and in providing a safer trip.

permitting their children to ride the bus with glass bottles, large bulky objects, or anything else which could cause injury or complicate matters in case of an emergency.

If these objects need to be taken to school, parents should make the necessary arrangements. Students should also be instructed in proper conduct aboard the bus. Our rules aboard the bus are rather general and very simple. They are:

Obey the driver. Sit down and remain seated. If talking use conversational tones. No yelling, screaming or shouting. Remain silent at railroad crossings. Keep hands, feet, and objects in your possession off others. No smoking or lighting of matches, etc. and no eating or drinking.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, was a supply point where wagon trains stopped for rest during the goldrush of 1849.

Landowner Course Set

WAYNE - Thousands of Michigan citizens live in the Detroit area and own land in northern Michigan for recreation or profit.

"Many of these people need information to help them make better use of their land holdings," says Don Juchartz, Wayne County Extension Agricultural Agent, "but they often do not know where to go to obtain help."

In an effort to supply information on forest and land management, wildlife and fish production, as well as sales contracts, selling forest products and land boundaries, the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University has established a four-session free shortcourse for absentee landowners.

The short course will be held at the Ford Division Office Building, Southfield and Rotunda Drive (approximately one mile south of Michigan Avenue and Southfield Expressway) Dearborn, on four successive Monday evenings, Sept. 9, 16, 23, and 30, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

While there is no charge for attendance advance reservations must be made because of limited space. For reservations or additional information about the shortcourse call or write the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service, P.O. Box 550, Wayne, Michigan 48184 (telephone: 731-6550) before Sept. 5, 1968.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held on Sept. 25.

RESOLUTION #68-26

WHEREAS: The Romulus Township Board at its Regular Meeting held on April 16, 1968, passed Ordinance No. 68-68, setting up certain streets to be designated as fire lanes; and

WHEREAS: Notification of the passage of this Ordinance was made to the Wayne County Road Commission Traffic and Safety Division; and

WHEREAS: Many attempts by the Romulus Police Chief and the Township Clerk to have the Wayne County Road Commission properly post these streets have failed; and

WHEREAS: No notification or satisfactory reasons have been given by the Wayne County Road Commission as to why these fire routes cannot be posted, THEREFORE: The Romulus Township Board at its regular meeting held on August 20, 1968, does hereby again request the Wayne County Road Commission to properly post these streets as fire lanes.

I, Alfred J. Perry, Clerk of the Township of Romulus do hereby certify that the above is a true copy of a resolution passed by the Romulus Township Board at their Regular Meeting held on August 20, 1968, in the Romulus Township Hall.

Ice Show Opens At Cobo Sept. 17

DETROIT — Holiday on Ice, the skating spectacular owned by Madison Square Garden will make its third appearance in Detroit in as many years when it comes to the Cobo Arena for nine performances from Tuesday, Sept. 17 through Sunday, Sept. 22.

The show will come here direct from Madison Square Garden where it will open the national tour on Aug. 28.

Evening performances will be held from Tuesday through Friday at 8 p.m. There will be three shows on Saturday, Sept. 21. A special morning performance for the Boy and Girl Scouts, a matinee at 2:30 p.m. and evening show at 8:30 p.m.

There will be two shows on Sunday, Sept. 22 one at 1:30 o'clock and another 5:30. The late show Sunday will not be open to public. It has been purchased by the Michigan Blue Cross and Blue Shield.

THIS 1969 edition of Holiday on Ice is a departure from past productions, Don Arden, the producer and choreographer who is responsible for the Lido shows in Paris and Las Vegas and the director of many other Vegas spectaculars, created, staged and directed the new skating opus. He has brought the spectacular special affects and music of the huge hotel productions to the ice arena magnified several times.

Holiday on Ice trained in Knoxville, Tennessee and opened a two weeks tryout period there. Veteran ice show people said it was the first truly different ice show in many decades.

Ronnie Robertson is again starred. The supporting cast includes Anna Galmanni, the sensational Italian, Mari Langenbein, a beautiful German making her first U.S. appearance, Alice Quessy, Grete Borgen and Juanita Percelly. Tommy Allen is back again. Next to Robertson he's the best of the male contingent. Muller's hockey playing chimps, another European import are new. Paul Andre, the Cook family and Johnny Leech head the comedy skaters.

The box offices opened Aug. 19 at the Cobo Arena and all Hudson and Grinnell stores

Art Classes Scheduled

24 Karat's Star Revue Has Jarkey

Harry Jarkey, one of the nation's top comedians and a master of night club entertainment, heads the 24 Karat All Star Revue at Harold Wiggle's 24 Karat Club, 16890 Telegraph.

The Revue continues through Aug. 31.

It is the fifth appearance at the 24 Karat Club this year for the bouncy, kooky comedian from Nashville, Tenn.

Jarkey, remembered here as the star of his own television comedy show, has a repertoire that includes funny character parts.

THE REVUE also features the Holly Sisters, an interationally-known dance team; Eileen McCabe, actress-comedienne whose song belting is of show-stopper caliber; and Harry Harris, original partner of Jimmy Durante, singing nostalgic songs of the gay 90's.

The Lennie Schick Quartet provides background music for the acts and for dancing.

Wiggle announced that beginning Sept. 8 the 24 Karat Club will be open on Sundays from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. featuring Lennie Schick and his great little band providing entertainment and music for dancing.

The current schedule of stage shows at 8:30, 10 p.m. and 12:30 a.m. on Friday and Saturdays; and at 9:30 and 11:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, will continue.

Theater Sponsors Tests

As part of its student Audience Program, the Meadow Brook Theatre at Oakland University is sponsoring a series of art contests for students in area high schools for the second consecutive year.

The Meadow Brook Theatre has contacted Art Departments of area high schools asking that students be encouraged to submit cover designs for Stage Magazine. A winning design for each of the Meadow Brook Theatre's seven productions during the 1968-69 season will be selected by a panel of professional judges.

The winner of each cover design will be awarded a pair of tickets for the opening night performance of the play he or she interpreted. The runner up of each cover design will be given a pair of tickets to a performance later in the run of the play.

Art teachers in the area high schools have received a duplicate of a Meadow Brook Theatre Stage Magazine cover, a brief synopsis of each play and a list of deadline dates for each contest.

RELATE EXPERIENCES

Gregorys Return and Describe Expedition to Cornwallis Island

BELLEVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Park E. Gregory of 375 Brain Avenue have just returned from Resolute, Cornwallis Island, Northwest Territories, Canada.

They have completed an expedition on which they carried out research work for the Department of Physics and Astronomy of Eastern Michigan University. They were the only members of the expedition. The following is a report of some of their experiences.

Resolute is a combination air strip, work camp, scientific base, and Eskimo community lying 2,100 airline miles northwest by north of Montreal, Canada, and almost directly north of Belleville. It is an eight and one-quarter hour flight from Montreal by a Super Constellation aircraft on a commercial run.

Its remoteness is testified to by the twenty-two wrecked aircraft in the area about the base that almost made it. Resolute is on Cornwallis, an island of some 70 miles diameter, 700 miles north of the Arctic Circle and north of the Canadian mainland.

AUGUST WEATHER usually averages in the 30's, but unusually fine weather prevailed during the stay with temperatures in the 40's. A high of 49 degrees and a low of 30 degrees was experienced with considerable sunshine. The sun set about midnight followed by dusk until 2:30 a.m. when the sun rose. Left-over snow filled ravines and was in banks on the mountain sides.

Floe ice was scattered in the sea at Resolute, but further south required Canadian Coast Guard icebreakers to get supply ships through. Two icebreakers arrived during the stay escorting a tanker and a survey ship.

The Gregorys became friends of Dr. H. E. Robertson, a physician from Ottawa who had flown in with them and was waiting for the survey ship, the C. D. Howe, to arrive.

THE HOWE arrived five days late due to ice conditions, and Dr. Robertson immediately replaced a Dr. Colthard who had been working north on the ship X-raying Eskimos at every little outpost for tuberculosis. There were dentists on board and other doctors making routine examinations of the Eskimos.

The survey ship would continue on to Ellesmere Island and finally down the east coast of Baffin Island and complete its survey by mid-October.

The Eskimo village on Resolute was begun in 1953 when four families were moved there by the Canadian government from Port Harrison on Hudson Bay. They were not used to the three months of total darkness in winter and did not fare well. In 1955 six families from Pond Inlet at the north end of Baffin Island were moved there to help the others, but the two groups did not integrate well, and it was several years before cooperation was good.

Idlout, a well-known Eskimo in North America because of his acting role in the film, "Land of the Long Day" was known to the Gregorys who have planned to meet him, but instead they found his grave. He had been killed this June when his Ski-Doo plunged into a 40-foot deep ravine during a white-out, and his neck was broken. The Mountie who found him described the accident to the Gregorys, and added that he had almost plunged into the same ravine during the search.

THE GOVERNMENT is completing a dozen or so pre-fab homes for the Eskimos, which they can rent for $60 per month with electricity, heat, water delivery and trash pick-up included. If they decide to buy, the rent applies as payments. The Eskimo men work on the base for $5,000 or $7,000 per year. There are about 160 Eskimos in the village and a government school with two teachers offers education through the sixth grade. The Eskimos are very shy, simple, primitive people, and very few are able to complete more than six grades of school.

Other research parties were in the north, and came through Resolute while the Gregorys were there. They talked to a group doing research in geology on Devon Island just to the east of Cornwallis. They had camped there for six weeks, had seen a polar bear and two musk-ox. A young husband and wife team were in their party.

Another research group from a university in Ottawa dipped 500 Arctic char from a nearby lake, anesthetized them, pumped their stomachs to determine the kind of food they were eating, tagged them, then revived the fish, and returned them to the lake. Their program will continue for several years.

AN EXPEDITION lead by Channing Loomis, a lecturer at Dartmouth College, came from the Hall Basin in the north of Greenland where they had searched for and found the grave of C. F. Hall, an American explorer who had been buried there in 1870. They had secured permission from Danish authorities to exhume the body to determine if Hall had been poisoned by arsenic as he had claimed just before his death. The Gregorys talked to the pathologist in the party who did the autopsy and brought hair and fingernail clippings back for analysis. His opinion was that they would not find arsenic. Hall was known to have paranoid tendencies and often suspected others.

The Gregorys made operational studies at the satellite read-out station, the ionospheric station, the magnetic station, and the seismographic station, as well as conducting their own experiments in audio-frequency electrical wave propagation in soils with a permafrost base.

Famed Sing-Out Group Coming to Detroit Aug. 31

Young people from Metropolitan Detroit and from distant communities in Asia have joined hands to present Sing-Out, Asia which they believe is the fastest, freshest way possible to demonstrate a new purpose for their generation.

Some 150 youths represent the voices of Sing-Out, Asia, a world-acclaimed sing out musical group which will be heard at Ford Auditorium Saturday, Aug. 31 at 8 p.m.

The group has toured Hong Kong, Thailand, Vietnam, Korea, Japan, Taiwan, the Philippines, Indonesia and Singapore and now are on a 10,000 mile tour of the United States performing in 35 cities within ten weeks.

Singing the praises of Sing-Out, Asia is a Metropolitan Detroit group known as Sing-Out, Detroit. This group will welcome the cast of Sing-Out, Asia at Kennedy Square in downtown Detroit. The local groups will also dedicate special selections to their foreign visitors during other presentation at Kennedy Square and at Michigan State Fair on Aug. 28, 29 and 30.

SING-OUT, Asia will join Sing-Out, Detroit at a special welcome presentation at Kennedy Square at 10 a.m. Aug. 30.

Since its formation in 1965, Sing-Out, Asia has performed from the 38th parallel of Korea to the rubber tree jungles of Indonesia. In the Philippines, President Marcos said to the group, "Your theme and vision are identical to mine. The future of Asia is in your hands. Go out and give it to the continent."

One of the members of the cast, Gene Lee from China, said: "We are glad to bring Sing-Out, Asia across the Pacific to Detroit and all America. This is more than a musical or a student-exchange program. We come from almost every background and country in the Far East. We represent a new generation."

"We aim to link up a generation worldwide with the fire and faith to take on world leadership for the 21st century."

"TO OFFER passionate and positive alternative to war, violence and anarchy; to give an 'Up with People' spirit to millions burdened by hopelessness and despair. That's why we have decided to 'shout loud and clear'."

Gail Beale, 16, of Royal Oak, and Peggy Sloan, of Detroit, members of Sing-Out, Detroit, are heading the local reception committee.

Tickets can be obtained at Grinnell Stores, all J. L. Hudson department stores and Ford Auditorium. Further information can be obtained by calling LI 1-425.

Michigan State University, with nearly 40,000 students on the East Lansing campus today, first opened its doors to six professors and 60 students in 1857, two years after being established.

My Favorite Things

Petey Poses Plenty of Problems

By GAIL McKNIGHT

A dog's life. That's the life.

This dog of ours is 45 pounds of puppy. Obtained from a friend, Sherman, as they called him, became our Petey. He weighed in that February night at five pounds.

Well that was six months, and 40 pounds ago.

The only trouble is Petey thinks he is a "people" and he thinks he still weighs five pounds.

Coming into a family where there are no children, he figured he was the child. All the chairs were his, pillows were for chewing, and blankets for dragging around.

He, like all other children, has become a bit fussy, (a polite word for spoiled.) Turning up his nose at plain dry dog food, he insists on at least some milk or a piece of table meat.

I must confess I am a party to this escapade. When I do buy a sirloin, I always buy one with a large steak bone for Petey. When steak is a $1.09 a pound, I must be crazy to spend that kind of money for a bone.

When we got a load of sand for our patio, it was dumped in a huge mound in our yard. Petey naturally assumed we got the sand for him. Now he sits for hours on top of his five-foot mound surveying his domain.

In a neighborhood where dogs abound, Petey still stops all in their tracks. When he tears around the front yard, and jumps through the car window, the kids say, "Look at that crazy dog!"

Petey's heritage is a bit muddled, so no one is guessing how much he will finally weigh. When taken to the vet's this past week, we told the doctor that Pete weighed 43 pounds. The vet replied, with a knowing look, "That won't last long."

Meanwhile we are losing a few friendships. One friend will not set foot in our house until he knows "where the beast is."

Another one who is a mere 4'10" is no longer safe with lovable Petey. He can now (and does) put his paws on her shoulder, and gives her a kiss. Poor Pete doesn't realize this doesn't win friends for him (not to mention us.)

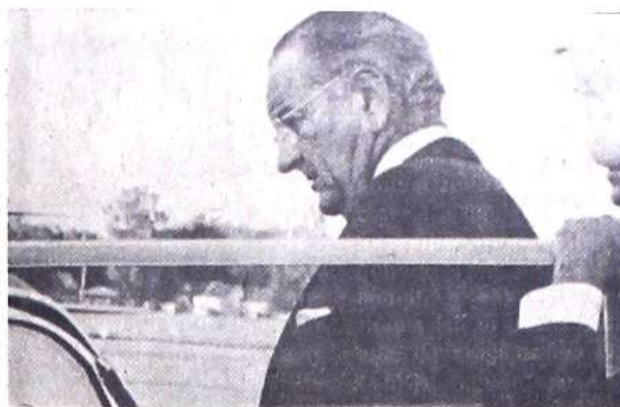

Pete and the vet are great friends, since Pete has had so many infirmities. Typical was when he stuck his head under the fence, and tore his eyelid. It wasn't fatal, but just worth a good scare.

Stitches, a night in the animal hospital, and lots of pink medicine for his face were in order. About the same time, we were painting our house. Petey, still dopey from the medication, walked into the wall, and ended up with a yellow rear. Between his pink head, and yellow rear, I was almost too embarrassed to let him out in the yard.

That encounter with the vet, plus several minor infections, have given Petey quite a medical history. Our medicine cabinet has more bottles labeled for Petey than for us humans.

The puppy stage certainly offers a lot of laughs, but what I am now looking forward to is the "faithful dog who sits by the fire" stage. At the rate we are going, I should live so long.

Johnson, Wallace Visit Michigan

Photos by Lothar Konietzko and Bill Balogh

THEY WERE THERE—When President Lyndon B. Johnson and Presidential candidate George Wallace flew in at Metro Airport last week, the Associated Newspapers photographers were on the scene. Lothar Konietzko, ANP chief photographer, obtained some candid photos of Wallace, and Bill Balogh, ANP photographer and aerospace writer, not only caught Johnson but also managed to come up with some shots of his daughter, Luci Baines Johnson and his grandson, Patrick Lyndon Johnson. Both Johnson and Wallace made the trip to Michigan to speak at the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention at Detroit's Cobo Hall.

Ford Sales Move Up 40 Percent

St. Aloysius Schedules Festival

DEARBORN—Ford Division sold 58,071 cars and trucks in the second ten days of August, up about 40 per cent over the same period a year ago.

Truck sales were a new high for the period at 17,539 units. With the Aug. 11-20 figures, the division has set five consecutive 10-day truck sale records. Truck sales during 1968 have risen to 417,383, by far the greatest ever at this point in the calendar year.

Ford Division car sales jumped sharply over the comparable 10-day figure last year, from 29,024 to 40,532. The pacesetter continued to be the Fairlane and its popular Torino series. A total of 9,569 Fairlanes was sold in the mid-August period, 136.0 percent above the sales level last year.

The daily sales rate for cars was 5,067 and for trucks 2,192. In the same period a year earlier the rates were 3,628 and 1,576 respectively. Each period had eight selling days.

St. Aloysius Parish of Romulus will sponsor their annual Homecoming Festival Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2 at the Church on Neville near Goddard.

A country style chicken or ham dinner will be served Sept. 1 from noon to 6 p.m. at $1.75 for adults and $.75 for children under 12. On Labor Day, the dinner will be spaghetti at $1 per adult.

Besides the booths, games rides and prizes, there will be a grand raffle including a 1968 Chevrolet Impala, a color TV, a movie camera and projector, a polaroid camera, and a portable TV.

Pointed objects, falls and hard blows cause nearly 80 per cent of eye injuries among children. Teach youngsters safe play for safe sight, says the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Association Initiates 'Job Pool' Program

ROMULUS — The Romulus Community Youth Association, a non-profit organization organized in 1966, under the sponsorship of OEO, issued plans on a new youth assistant program.

In early 1967 the youth program was dropped from the budget and was no longer sponsored by OEO.

Mrs. Louis Hill, organizer and conductor of the group who continued to work with the group in her spare time said, "we want to do something constructive in the community to help ourselves and others. We have proposed a 'job pool' which works like this.

"We are asking each householder or shop owner to deposit at least $1.50 per week into a pool with the club, and in return we will send to them a teen-age boy or girl to do a maximum of two hours work each week, for the money which has been deposited with the club. If a householder wants work done in any given week we will ask them to pay more than the $1.50."

The reason the association is only asking $1.50 per week is so that the housewife who may have a large family and a small income might have the pleasure of two full hours freedom each week. She could have a baby sitter while she goes shopping or to the beauty shop or anything, knowing that her children are in competent hands, Mrs. Hill stated.

The Club hopes to be able to pay each worker at least $1.25 per hour. To those who can afford to pay more than $1.50 per week are asked to do so in order for our club to carry out the program.

"There are many mothers who need help, and there are many youngsters who need work. Our motto is unity and we are asking the strong to bear the afflictions of the weak," Mrs. Hill added.

Any one who has a job around the house to be done, clearing land, cutting grass, washing cars, painting, babysitting, or just about anything a teen-ager can do, are requested to call Mrs. Hill at 728-8858, and she will arrange for a youth to come to your home to do the work.

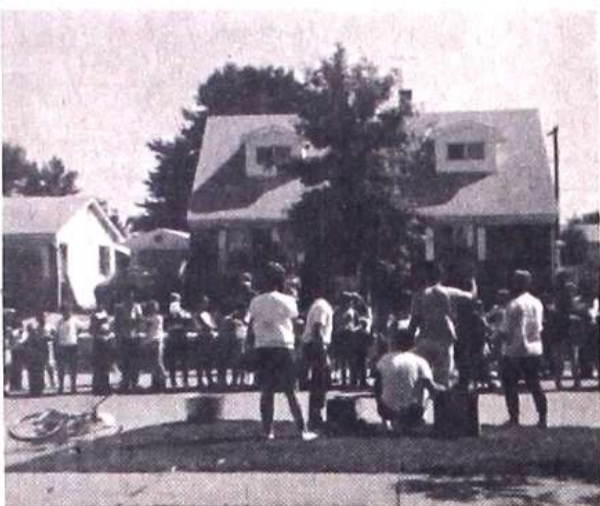

If you wish to talk to Mrs. Hill in person she lives at 35800 Park Place.

Student Council Holds Car Wash

ROMULUS — The student council at Romulus High School is sponsoring a car wash, to be held at the parking lot of the high school, Wednesday, Aug. 28, from 2 to 8 p.m.

The price of the car wash is $1. Proceeds will be used by the students to finance their Homecoming programs.

PRIZE LINE-UP — Children that participated in various events at the second annual block party on Castle Drive, Romulus, are shown lined-up to receive prizes.

FOOT RACES — Among the many games enjoyed at the block party were the foot races. Besides that children games, adults danced and socialized until 12 midnight.

CLEARING STREET — Residents and neighborhood children clearing the street in the 37535 block on Castle Drive in preparation of foot races.

DOING THE LIMBO — Pat Tucker of Romulus shown doing the popular Limbo: passing under the bar without touching it. The game attracted many participants.

Huron Valley Opens Program Sept. 14

ANN ARBOR — The Huron Valley Youth For Christ will open its '68-'69 rally program Saturday, Sept. 14, 7:30 p.m. at Ann Arbor High School.

Featured will be former University of Michigan All-American, Cazzie Russell, who led the University of Michigan team to national renown during his time in Ann Arbor.

He presently is playing for the New York Knickerbockers. Cazzie Russell is also author of the book ME CAZZIE. Just recently he spoke at Winona Lake, Indiana before 6,000 teenagers. He is known for his ability to communicate with teens and to share his philosophy of life.

Also with Cazzie will be the King's Heralds from Ann Arbor and Dick Evans teenage violin player who recently won third place in national teen talent competition.

RALLIES FOR the '68-'69 year will feature some of the best teen speakers in the country. In November, former Miss America Vonda Kay Van Dyke will be here, the December rally will feature former night club entertainer Dave Boyer, and the October 12 rally will present former leader of Detroit's Voice of Christian Youth, Don Ingram.

These classes will be taught by Executive Director Duane Cuthbertson and Associate Director Bob Williams. The purpose of these meetings will be to present real purpose, through application of Christian principles, to the dynamic teen personality. Anyone interested in attending should call 769-4230.

THE PROGRAM this year will involve two new members on staff. Working with the musical program this year will be University of Michigan senior, All VanBrocklin. Al comes from Muskegon.

Michigan, and has been a member of the King's Heralds. He is an excellent performer and arranger of music.

Also, coming on staff will be Bill Jerault. Bill is a graduate of Annapolis Naval Academy, and he is the founder and former director of the Lifeline work in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Bill will be working with Lifeline in Ann Arbor.

Huron River Pollution is Before Court

NEW BOSTON — A Wayne County Circuit hearing before Judge Harry J. Dingman, involving pollution of the Huron River in Huron Township scheduled for today has been postponed until tomorrow, Aug. 29, George Angel, township supervisor announced.

The Michigan Water Resources Commission through its legal counsel, Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, instituted the court action to get compliance to its directive to Huron Township Administration calling for a stop to pollution of the Huron River.

Township voters in a referendum election, May 6, defeated two Contract Propositions for the construction of a $4,050,000 sewer program that township officials reported would alleviate the drains, streams and rivers of the township, and thus bring compliance to the State Agency's order.

In 5 years you can save over $140.00 with a new Gas dryer.

Work it out for yourself. It takes less than 2¢ to dry a load of clothes with Gas. And you can dry 5 loads in a Gas dryer for the cost of drying 1 with electricity.

Based on the number of loads an average family dries, there's a saving of $28 or more a year—$140 in 5 years. Your Gas dryer can actually pay for itself in 5 years with the money saved in operating costs.

There are no hidden expenses, either. Installation is free. Maintenance comes to less than 20¢ a year, on the average (or the amount you can save on a few loads).

No wonder 7 out of 10 families that now have dryers have Gas dryers. Money aside, Gas finishes loads up to 10 minutes faster, so you can get more loads through in a day. Clothes come out fresh, soft and looking like new, including all your permanent-press things.

Gas makes the big difference . . . costs less, too. Not just for 5 years, either; but as long as you use it. See the latest dryer models at dealer or Gas Company showrooms.

Isn't it time you bought her a new Gas dryer?

Take your savings and get out of town!

Funny thing about summer, we wait nine months for it, and when it comes, we pack our bags and get out of town.

If this sounds like you, you'll find that "getting away from it all" can be more fun if you've spent the months leading up to your trip, saving for it!

And speaking of savings, we've two plans that can go a long way toward helping you, go a long way! The first, passbook savings . . . your money earns 4% annually, and you can get it, when you want it. The second, six-month Certificates of Deposit, pay a full 5% annual rate.

If you've been saving, "have a happy" . . . if not, consider a "swing now, pay later" advance from our loan department. Either way, when you need the services of a bank, remember . . .

Gates Appointed

and the appointment of a new cage mentor.

Larry Hulce, who's exodus was as quiet as his success as head cage coach, stepped down after three years as master strategist of the Tiger cage machine.

Moving into the head coaching position is Westland's Allen Gates who for the past four years has served as assistant cage coach at Allen Park High School.

Gates is no stranger to Belleville and Tiger cage teams. "We've met on the court for the past four years and the boys have impressed me. They have the physical attributes of jelling into an outstanding school but appear to lack the spirit."

The 29-year-old mentor said that one of his biggest problems will be to create that "new spirit and desire."

Belleville and Allen Park are linked in the Suburban Six conferences.

A graduate of Central Michigan University where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Education, Gates is presently working towards his masters at Eastern Michigan in Administration.

He has been employed in the Allen Park School system for the past five years and will teach World History as well as coach basketball when he makes the move to Belleville in September.

Married to Janet, the Gates have two children, Craig 2; and 10-month old Marlo. The Gates presently make their home in Westland at 29248 Manchester.

SWITCH FAILURE — was the cause of a freight car derailment last Wednesday (Aug. 21) at the Norfolk and Western Railroad track crossing at Savage Road. No one was reported injured. The trainmen were in the process of switching cars at the crossing when the electronic contact in the switching control failed to function, it was stated. Left is a close-up of the tipped box car and right is a view of the crossing.

Michael Kieller Completes Class

ROMULUS — Army Private Michael R. Kieller, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Kieller, 9695 Harrison Road, has completed nine weeks of advanced infantry training at Ft. Polk, La. His last week of training was spent in guerrilla warfare exercises.

During his guerrilla training, he lived under simulated

Vietnam conditions for five days, fighting off night attacks and conducting raids on "enemy" villages. He was taught methods of removing booby traps, setting ambushes and avoiding enemy ambushes.

University of Chicago is noted for research and graduate work.

since we are approaching the period of the year when many of us are enjoying drives around the state to take in the fall color scene.

(1.) When you see a "deer crossing" sign, slow down. Some deer's schedule may conflict with yours.

(2.) If you see reflected animal eyes, slow down even more and sound your horn. Don't just give a little "beep-beep", either, really lean on that horn for a couple of long blasts. Be prepared, too, to come to a full stop at a moment's notice.

(3.) Deer often travel together, so if you see one, look out for others.

Meeting Today On Pollution

BELLEVILLE — A meeting on pollution problems of Huron River and Belleville Lake will be held at the Belleville City Hall today.

Attending the session called by Belleville Mayor Royce E. Smith will be officials from the Wayne County Health Department, Huron River Watershed Council, and city and township as well as state representatives.

Area Unemployment Shows Drop

WAYNE — The employment picture in western Wayne brightened this week as the Wayne office of the Michigan Employment and Security Commission reported a drop of 350 in the number of claims put in by persons drawing unemployment compensation.

The Wayne office of MES, managed by Bernard T. McShane, handles unemployment compensation claims for all of Romulus, Garden City, Westland, Canton and Van Buren townships and parts of Inkster, although the latter is within the Dearborn office jurisdiction.

A peak of 4,050 unemployed was reached, according to McShane, in the last week of July. He attributed this to layoffs in the auto industry and related manufacturing suppliers of the big auto firms.

Model changeovers in the auto industry began in the first week of July to show a sharp rise in the number of unemployed. Claims were up more than 20 per cent for the first week in July as compared with an average weekly claims rate of 1,000 per week during June.

The sharpest increase in the number of persons filing for unemployment claims appeared in the period between the third and fourth week in July when claims rose from 2,550 to 4,050.

McShane stated the "downward trend" in unemployment claims began with the first week of this month and can be expected to continue downward until the seasonal peak employment period is reached in November.

"New car production is now getting underway", McShane said, "and can be expected to gradually build up to full operations at assembly plants and manufacturing suppliers. The demand for skilled labor has always been high but with this upward trend in auto production, general laborers and production workers are also much in demand."

Even the "hard corps" unemployed statistics are declining under the back-to-work calls, according to McShane. "The national Alliance of Businessmen (a joint effort by government and private business to reduce unemployment through job training programs) has gained some good response from employers."

Retail merchants are taking advantage of the Alliance program to fill their employment needs. McShane pointed out retailers usually are in great demand for help in November prior to the Christmas season when their business reaches its seasonal high. Filling jobs now through the new government training program should have a favorable affect on the over-all employment picture, McShane concluded.

U.S. Force Issues Call For Woman Graduates

Sergeant W.R. Williams, local Air Force Representative, has announced that an urgent requirement exists for Women College Graduates 20-30 years to become Officers on the Air Force Aerospace Team.

"A WAF officer's career starts with a 10-week precommissioning training course at the coeducation Officer Training School at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. The school is an orientation course, and prepares officers for responsible jobs on the Aerospace Team." He said, "The major field of study in college usually determines the officers job assignment, but specific areas can be requested," he added.

The A.F. Sergeant pointed out that there is a WAF Lieutenant assigned as a plans and programs officer in a communications squadron and supervises a staff of 30 men, and another WAF Lieutenant is assigned as an orbital analyst who studies satellite characteristics and predicts their future orbits, as two good examples of unique job assignments offered WAF officers.

He also said there are job vacancies in communications, intelligence, supply, personnel, and administration, just to name a few. Sergeant Williams urges Belleville area women college graduates to visit him at his office, located at 6228 Middlebelt Road, Garden City or call him at 425-5858.

ROMULUS COMMUNITY SCHOOLS COUNTY OF WAYNE, MICHIGAN NOTES

Sealed bids for the purchase of the above notes will be received by the undersigned at the Board of Education Offices, 11401 Olive Street, Romulus, Michigan, until 7:30 o'clock p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, on the 9th day of September, A.D., 1968, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read.

The notes will be dated September 1, 1968, will mature May 1, 1969, and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding four per cent (4%) per annum. Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company qualified under Michigan or federal statutes to act as paying agent, to be designated by the original purchaser subject to approval by the School District. Form and denomination of the notes shall be at the option of the purchaser. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

The notes are not subject to prior redemption.

For the purpose of awarding the notes, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from October 1, 1968, to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the Romulus Community Schools, Wayne County, Michigan. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

The loan is in anticipation of the operating tax due and payable December 1, 1968.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of two per cent (2%) of the par value of the notes, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the Board of Education, Romulus Community Schools, Wayne County, Michigan, must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the notes. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys, of Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the notes, to be secured at the School District's expense. The School District will furnish notes ready for execution at its expense. Notes will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes."

College May Seek Tax Vote

DETROIT—The board of trustees of the Wayne County Community College District "will in all probability seek a modest amount of millage at the Nov. 5 election," according to Donald M. D. Thurber, board chairman.

The seven-member board, elected June 10, has the responsibility of establishing and governing a two-year college system in Wayne County, excluding those areas now covered by Schoolcraft, Henry Ford and Highland Park Community Colleges. The last-named institution has announced its intention to become part of the new system as soon as the board obtains the necessary millage approval.

"The board has devoted many hours to its assignment since it took office at the end of June," Thurber stated. "It has already met with some of the most highly qualified experts on community colleges in the state and the nation. Still more study will be necessary, however, to give the board accurate information on the probable number of students to be served, the number of campuses, and the cost figures that will have to be covered from such sources as student fees, state and federal funds, private gifts, and local millage."

"As soon as the facts have been assembled and evaluated, the board will decide whether to ask for millage in November and the amount needed to give the residents of Wayne County a comprehensive system of two-year colleges," Thurber said.

"The board hopes," Thurber stated, "the voters of Wayne County will familiarize themselves with the widespread social and economic benefits that always follow the establishment of community colleges, especially in metropolitan areas."

"Wayne County is about 10 years behind every other large urban center in the country in community college development and is behind most of outstate Michigan, as well," he said. "The board has an urgent responsibility, once the voters have provided the means, to remove Wayne County as the nation's outstanding exception in community college development."

Murray Jackson, of Detroit, has been granted leave of absence as assistant dean of students of Wayne State University to serve as temporary executive secretary of the community college board.

Profs Plan Prediction Study

ANN ARBOR—Chances are you can use a bit of help in betting on the weather. Perhaps a "scoring system" to make your own evaluation of tomorrow's forecast?

That, in effect, is one of the possibilities being explored by two meteorologists, Prof. Edward S. Epstein and his former research assistant Allan H. Murphy in the University of Michigan department of meteorology and oceanography.

The idea, simply, is this: The next best thing to giving each citizen his own scoring system is to devise a method that can help the forecaster improve his own ability to benefit the citizens.

Part of the problem in personalizing a scoring system comes from the way we use forecasts. A farmer, for instance, can balance the cost of preparing for a predicted rain against the possible loss from the rain that may or may not come.

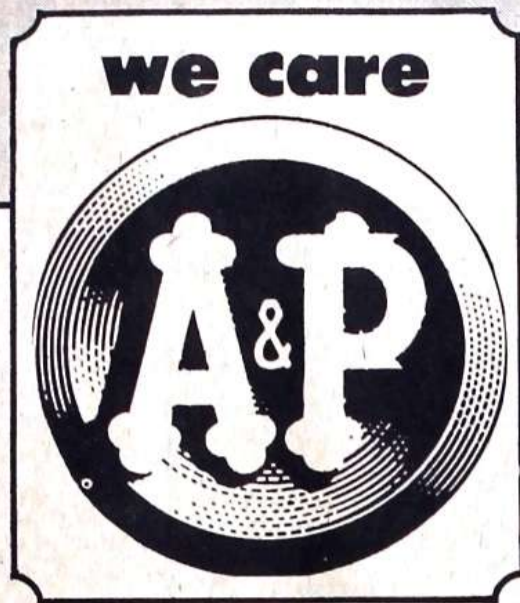

Normally, however, individuals cannot evaluate their actions in terms of dollars and cents. So they must use "utility" values, instead of dollar values, to weigh the worth of possible action. But every man's utility value is different from every other man's.

The situation, however, is "not impossible since methods can be devised which, at least in part, circumvent this difficulty," Prof. Epstein says. In fact, the scoring system now used by the Weather Bureau is a crude measure of utility averaged over many users.

The work on the forecast evaluation is only a part of Prof. Epstein's effort to study various ways of telling who or what procedure gives the "best" weather estimates.

One thing appears certain: With such studies by Prof. Epstein and other researchers, it should become easier to win bets on the weather.

IS NOMINATED FOR POST

Bizek Gives Answers to Inquiries On New Wayne County Supervisors

ROMULUS — Edmund Bizek, Romulus Township supervisor, was nominated in the Aug. 5 primary election as Democratic representative for the 24th District on the new Wayne County Board of Supervisors. He led all ten candidates.

The new Wayne County Board of Supervisors was devised under a 1966 state law which requires that all Michigan Counties replace their present county boards with directly - elected legislative bodies.

Under the 26 - District plan and county home rule members; of the county board would be elected on a partisan basis of approximately equal population. The new Wayne County Board is to take office Jan. 1 and replace the present 133 - member board.

Whether Bizek leaves his present post to assume new duties on the county board if elected, Nov. 5 depends on an interpretation of the state act setting up the new board and on whether it is part time or full time job with commensurate pay. The act provides that the new County Board set their own salaries.

In answering many inquiries on the new job and whether he will remain as supervisor, Bizek who contends that the state act does not prohibit him from serving in both capacities stated.

"In fact as long as township government existed, the township supervisor automatically served on the Board of Supervisors under the old set - up. The new act is silent of this point."

He pointed out that he understood that the Attorney General Frank E. Kelley rendered an opinion that serving both would constitute a "conflict of interest" I differ on this at least until the courts decides the matter.

He also said that his decision would depend on whether the job would be full time with commensurate salary or part time job.

"If this is true that it be a part time position, then I intend to continue in both positions. If the court tells me it is a conflict of interest, then I would give up the Board of Supervisors position and remain at my present post. It is a matter of economics."

If the new board membership is to be a full time job and a salary commensurate with its duties and responsibilities then I would give up the supervisor's post. Bizek serves in this capacity until the election of 1970.

"I think it should be a full time job with a full time pay. The taxpayers are entitled to full time representation. I approve County Home Rule that the voters are to decide in the November election.

If it is approved then the Board of Supervisors will run until a Charter Commission is drawn up and a Charter accepted by the voters. Then Board members could run for positions under County Home Rule, he concluded.

WWJ Radio Salutes Romulus Township

DETROIT — Romulus, Michigan, was honored by WWJ Radio's "Suburban Salute" last Monday, (Aug. 26) at 7:05 p.m.

Romulus was spotlighted as a pleasant, fast - growing suburb on the popular weekly WWJ program which acquaints listeners with communities in the Metropolitan Detroit area.

Romulus' many advantages was explored and interesting facts about the area was aired throughout the day on various WWJ programs.

Among the many WWJ personalities who saluted Romulus on Aug. 26 are: Morrie Carlson, 5:30 to 9:00 a.m.; Bob Allison, 9:15 to Noon; Marty McNeely, 12:30 to 5:00 p.m.; and Larry Adderley, 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. * * *

WWJ LISTENERS heard colorful facts about Romulus' past. The township was named by settlers from Romulus, New York, an area named for ancient Rome's legendary founder. Romulus, Michigan, was first settled in 1830.

To highlight modern development, WWJ personality Shelby Newhouse appeared on "Suburban Salute" with Township Supervisor Edmund Bizek. Bizek accepted a WWJ citation in behalf of the Township of Romulus.

Romulus Township is an area of extraordinary growth. Romulus industry continues to expand, bringing more homes and more families into the area.

To commended the city for its achievements in community living, the spirit of its leaders, and its great civic pride, the WWJ Stations presented a special proclamation to Romulus Township Supervisor Edmund Bizek honoring Romulus as WWJ Radio's "Community of the Week."

McMullan Hearing Tonight

BELLEVILLE — The Van Buren Planning Commission tonight will continue their public hearing into a new rezoning request on McMullan Point.

Last week, (Aug. 22) the Van Buren Planning Commission began a hearing on new petition filed by Dearborn Land Developer Frank Volk, Sr., owner of 147 acres of land fronting Belleville Lake, between I-94 Expressway and the lake and west of Beckley Road.

The seven-member planning commission lacked a quorum with only three present and adjourned the hearing until 8 p.m. tonight.

Romulus Seeks Fire Lane Signs

ROMULUS - Many attempts by Romulus Police Chief Jacob J. Koch and Romulus Township Clerk Alfred J. Perry to have the Wayne County Road Commission to post designated Romulus streets as fire lanes have, been unsuccessful.

When informed of this, the Romulus Township Board, last Tuesday, Aug. 20, passed a Resolution officially requested the road agency to post required signs.

On April 16, the Township Board adopted an Ordinance setting up certain streets in the township as fire lanes.

Maintenance of township roads and the posting of required signs is a function of the road commission, it was stated.

Hearing Delayed

NEW BOSTON — The regularly scheduled meeting of the Huron Township Board of Appeals for Monday, Sept. 2, has been postponed until Monday, Sept. 9, George Angel, supervisor, announced.

the meeting at 12:05 A.M.

Doyle Kicks-off Congressional Campaign with Jogging Contest

BELLEVILLE — With 1200 onlookers lining the rain soaked course, John F. Doyle (R) kicked off his congressional campaign with a jogging contest at the Wayne County 4H Fair, Belleville, Saturday afternoon, (Aug. 17).

Billed as the "Hardest Running Candidate in the USA", Doyle competed against a field of 40 in the first of a series of ten such races scheduled this fall as part of his campaigning throughout the 15th Congressional District.

"Jogging is a great sport that can be indulged in by all age groups, both men and women, as an inexpensive way of keeping fit and increasing their active life span."

"Hardy spirits and tough minds do usually inhabit sound bodies. I urge more and more Americans to set aside a small part of their day to run for their life," Doyle stated.

HEAVY RAINS the night before slowed the course considerably and necessitated shortening the route to 7/8 of a mile.

Nevertheless most observers new to jogging were impressed with the speed and stamina shown as all the contestants finished and the winners with very respectable times.

In the under 21 male group, fifteen-year old WILLIE RIGGINS of Belleville took top honors finishing only eight seconds behind DAVE BENNETT, a 21 year old college student, whose winning time was 4 minutes, 26 seconds.

At 5 minutes, 15 seconds, barefoot BECKI JOHNSTON of Romulus, who took up jogging only recently because she wanted to 'slim down', won the women's division easily, defeating over half the boys along the way.

Finishing third overall at 4 minutes, 37 seconds was Doyle, who awarded trophies to the winners and announced that the next jogging contest would be held in Westland on Saturday, September 7, 1968.

Doyle issued the following schedule for jogging contests:

LOCATION	DATE
Westland	Saturday, Sept. 7.
Dearborn Hts.	Saturday, Sept. 14.
Wayne	Saturday, Sept. 21.
Allen Park	Saturday, Sept. 28.
Taylor	Saturday, Oct. 5.
Inkster	Saturday, Oct. 12.
Melvindale	Saturday, Oct. 19.
Garden City	Saturday, Oct. 26.
Lincoln Park	Saturday, Nov. 2.

Guest Contestants who have agreed to participate to date: Gov. George Romney, Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken, Senator Robert Griffin.

Charter Petitions Available

ROMULUS — Voters in Romulus Township in addition to voting on local, state, county and federal levels in the November general election will select membership on a proposed Charter Commission in connection with an Incorporation Proposition.

Alfred J. Perry, township clerk, announced Monday that his office has nominating petitions for positions on the non-member charter commission.

Those who request petitions must have at least procured 20 signatures of registered and qualified voters. The petitions then must be filed with the Wayne County Clerk prior to election deadline.

Voters will also vote on a second proposition involving the question of what statute provisions the new Romulus Township Planning Commission will operate under.

UF CAMPAIGN OFFICIALS Leaders for the 1968 Torch Drive residential campaign in Romulus, Huron, Sumpter, Van Buren and Canton Townships include (from left), Mrs. Frederick C. Schneidewind, of Dearborn; Mrs. Frederick L. Green, Plymouth, and Mrs. James W. McCullough and Mrs. James B. Fruit, both of Belleville. Mrs. Schneidewind is unit chairman for the Western Wayne residential campaign, and Mrs. Fruit is Torch Drive region chairman for the residential campaign throughout the five townships. Mrs. Greene and Mrs. McCullough are among the division chairmen appointed by Mrs. Fruit. The 20th annual United Foundation campaign will be held Oct. 15 through Nov. 7 Benefiting will be nearly 200 health and community services.

Personnel Manager Named by Ford

DEARBORN — The "Project Transition" mechanic training program being conducted by Ford Motor Company in Louisville, Ky., for servicemen in the process of separation from active duty.

Jackson joined Ford in 1950 and in his 18 years with the company has had extensive experience in recruitment.

There is a severe shortage of qualified or readily trainable personnel for positions in our dealerships ranging from salesmen and mechanics to sales managers and general managers," Lorenz said.

"Jackson's assignment will be to coordinate the selection and placement of such personnel, and to help set up training programs, both in the company and in Ford and Lincoln - Mercury dealerships, to prepare candidates for these positions."

Lorenz said the shortage of automobile mechanics is particularly acute and Jackson will work with government and private agencies to help select, train and place disadvantaged persons in dealership mechanic jobs.

TWO SPECIFIC examples of training activities which will be under Jackson's supervision are:

• An experimental, federally financed job - entry mechanic training program for disadvantaged persons which the company expects to conduct in selected metropolitan areas. Similar programs will be developed for other dealership positions.

for the General Parts Division from 1962 to 1963. He was a member of the corporate Industrial Relations Staff from 1950 to 1962.

Jackson received the highest Ford Motor Company award for community service earlier this year when he was named "Ford Citizen of the Year" for Washtenaw County. He was cited for his civic, education and church work.

Born in Branford, Conn., Jackson was graduated from Yale University where he was captain of the football team and received the George Bulgar Lowe trophy as the outstanding football player in New England.

He recently returned from the New Detroit Committee where he spent 10 months on "loan" from the company counseling municipal and private agencies on the hiring and training of disadvantaged persons from Detroit's ghetto areas.

Fire at Hotton's Destroys Tires

BELLEVILLE — City fireman extinguished a fire that destroyed a pile of used tires at Andy Hotton's, 510 Savage Road.

A Clean-up boy was burning rubbish when flames ignited a pile of used tires nearby, police reported. No one was hurt. Damage estimate was not reported.

Wayne State University's winningest crew team was the 1966 squad, which won 7 or 11 dual meets.

WASHINGTON AND Small Business

BY C. WILSON HARDER

Jet Age Emancipation

The American public, just getting accustomed to female mailmen instead of all-male mailmen, may soon have to adjust to a new breed of airline stewardess.

The U. S. Equal Opportunity Commission has ruled that airlines cannot, under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, discriminate by sex in hiring personnel to serve passengers. They must hire qualified male applicants, the Commission said.

So just when mini-skirts and stylish wardrobes have become airline essentials and businessmen are avidly competing for aisle seats, a rude awakening is in store for the jet traveler.

The airlines unsuccessfully argued that sex should be an occupational qualification for the stewardess job, but the Commission said duties "can be satisfactorily performed by members of both sexes." The Commission obviously didn't listen to any testimony from businessmen.

The issue was brought up by four disgruntled young men who were denied jobs as cabin stewards. Presumably, they will be the first of a "new breed"—something like the first boys to enroll in a girls' school.

The Commission also has pending more than 100 complaints from stewardesses who claim airlines have special rules for them alone, such as compulsory retirement when they marry or reach a certain age.

A new Federal law banning discrimination because of age, in hiring or promotion, became effective June 12. So it looks like only a matter of time until the airlines must hire fatherly and matronly oldtimers to ask "Coffee, tea or milk?"

Airlines may be forced to change their policies and allow present stewardesses to stay on the job until they are grandmothers.

It is doubtful that any of the Congressmen who voted for either the Civil Rights Act or the Age Discrimination Act envisioned that it would come to this. Laws of such sweeping nature are interpreted and implemented by agencies, bureaus, boards and commissions of government in ways which often astound the legislators who wrote the laws.

Job emancipation has been a reality in the Post Office Department for several years now. Many of the female carriers complain that routes are too long and the bags too heavy and most don't like the uniform.

The Wall Street Journal says that some male mailmen complain that mailwomen use their wiles to con men into doing some of their chores. "They just don't carry their share of the load," said one male carrier, who explained that if he helps a woman lift a heavy bag of mail he usually ends up sorting half of it for her.

It's getting hard enough to tell the boys from the girls without the government adding to the confusion.

Jean D. LeBlanc Serving Carrier

BELLEVILLE — Aviation Ordnanceman Third Class Jean D. LeBlanc, USN, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. LeBlanc of 745 East Huron River Drive, has just completed a six-month deployment in the Gulf of Tonkin off the coast of North Vietnam aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ticonderoga.

As a crewmember, he helped to provide air support to U. S. and Allied ground forces ashore in South Vietnam. He also helped to provide the necessary support to the squadron of Air Wing 19 so that they could fly combat missions against the enemy.

Former Wayne State University head football coach Herb Smith, retired after 21 years at the school six of which were as head grid mentor.

ASC Lists Election Boundary

WAYNE — The Wayne County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee has announced Election Boundary Changes.

Farmers in the Nankin and Romulus Township areas will vote with the following communities:

Nankin with Canton Township; Romulus with Van Buren Township.

Notice of the time and place of the election meeting will be mailed to voters.

Geared Powders

Metal powders of nickel and iron are used to make strong, light and intricately shaped gears for small engines. The gears are formed by compression and heat.
